FIRST DAY—WEDNESDAY

Asheville, N. C., October 20, 1937.

The Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, met in forty-eighth annual session in Central Church, Asheville, N. C., at 7:30 o'clock, Wednesday evening, October 20, 1937, with Bishop Paul B. Kern presiding.

The Bishop conducted the opening service by announcing hymn No. 162. The Apostles' Creed was recited. The first chapter of the Epistle to the Ephesians was read, and the prayer was offered by Rev. M. B. Stokes, of the Korean mission.

It was reported that 239 clerical and 83 lay delegates were present.

On nomination of H. C. Sprinkle, seconded by W. W. Peele, W. L. Sherrill was elected Secretary and then the Secretary nominated the following: E. H. Nease, H. C. Sprinkle, Jr., C. P. Bowles, and J. P. Morris, as Assistant Secretaries; H. C. Northrop, Statistical Secretary.

E. K. McLarty, Jr., Reid Wall, H. C. Sisk, and W. R. Kelly were nominated to act as Secretaries to the tellers in tabulating votes for delegates to the General Conference and on Unification, and they were all elected.

Bishop Kern appointed the following as the Aldersgate Commemoration Committee on Findings: R. M. Courtney, W. A. Stanbury, A. C. Gibbs, L. B. Hayes, J. B. Ivey, Thad Ford, and W. B. McEwen.

H. C. Sprinkle and W. G. McFarland were appointed a Committee on Minutes.

Minute Question 17, "What traveling preachers and what local preachers are elected deacons?" was called. W. K. Goodson, H. L. Lefevers, J. C. Stokes, and J. L. Stokes, II, having passed the Committee of Examination, were elected deacons and advanced to the class of the third year.

E. C. Calhoun and A. F. Phibbs were continued in the class of the second year.

The following were introduced: W. R. Odell, member of the Conference who is now attending as a delegate for the fifty-sixth session of the Conference; Dr. W. F. Quillian, Secretary of the General Board of Christian Education; Dr. Elmer T. Clark, Secretary of the General Board of Missions; Dr. J. M. Rowland, of the Virginia Conference; Prof. Walter Vassar, Director of Music of Greensboro College, and Mrs. Vassar.

Mayor R. M. Wells was introduced and welcomed the Conference to the city of Asheville.

On motion of A. C. Gibbs, 11:15 tomorrow was set as the time to take the ballot on Methodist Unification.

Leave of absence was granted P. R. Rayle, J. L. Rayle, and A. L. Rayle, that they might go to the bedside of their sick father in Summerfield.

Bishop Kern then introduced Dr. Umphrey Lee, the Dean of the Theological Department of Vanderbilt University, who delivered an eloquent address on "The Aldersgate Experience," after which Hymn No. 209 was sung.

Announcements were made, and at 10:00 o'clock the Conference adjourned with the benediction by J. B. Craven.

SECOND DAY

Thursday, October 21, 1937.

The Conference met at nine o'clock. Bishop Kern conducted the devotions and Dr. S. B. Turrentine led the prayer.

M. B. Stokes, Jr., was not before the Committee on Admissions, but by two-thirds vote was advanced to the class of the third year, and being absent from the Conference was not admitted into full connection.

H. L. Creech, Jr., W. K. Goodson, H. L. Lefevers, R. A. Smith, J. C. Stokes, and J. L. Stokes, II, appeared at the bar of the Conference and, after an address by the Bishop, took the disciplinary vows and were by vote admitted into full connection, giving answer to Minute Question No. 6.

The time for the election of delegates to the General Conference having arrived, the Bishop announced that we were entitled to 12 clerical and 12 lay delegates. The clerical tellers appointed were: H. G. Allen, H. F. Duncan, W. H. Groce, G. B. Clemmer, C. C. Herbert, Jr., L. F. Tuttle, G. T. Bond, and E. E. Snow.

Lay tellers: S. G. Hawfield, W. H. Worth, C. E. Eubanks, J. M. Snoddy, and L. L. Gobbel.

The first ballot for clerical and lay delegates was then cast and the tellers retired to count the votes.

Mrs. L. G. Atkinson, E. L. Jones, D. E. Griggs, Mrs. R. O. Lee, Mrs. C. N. Clark, Mrs. W. C. Houston, Mrs. W. L. Hutchins, J. E. Roe, Mrs. Nannie Cole, R. L. Pope, Mrs. C. F. Tate, Miss Blanche Westmoreland, and Mrs. T. R. Wolfe, lay alternates, were substituted for absent delegates.

The names of the superannuates and the supernumeraries were called, their characters were passed, and they were all referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the superannuate relation.

J. T. Stover, who had attended the Conferences for 62 consecutive years, was injured by an automobile accident and was unable to attend this session. On motion of A. W. Plyler, the Secretary was instructed to send messages of love and greeting to Brothers Stover and T. E. Wagg.

Bishop Kern then asked the superannuates to come to the altar and spoke words of appreciation of the service that they had rendered in the past years.

Minute Questions 5, 8, 10, 12, and 17 were called, and answered. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Minute Question 1, "Who are received on trial?" was called, and J. "Resolved, by the Board of Trustees of Davenport College, in session October 12, 1937, that this Board of Trustees respectfully petitions the Western North Carolina Conference in session at Asheville, October 20, 1937, to abandon all efforts to operate a school in Lenoir, N. C., and to set up a Board of Trust consisting of five members, with F. C. Sherrill, Chairman, to assemble all the available assets of Davenport College and to hold the same intact as a perpetual trust, the income of which endowment or trust fund to be used to pay by loan or gift the expenses of young women in our church schools, preferably Greensboro and Brevard.

"It is further requested that instead of leaving the Board of Trustees as at present constituted, that five members of the present Board be named to constitute this Board of Trust."

JOHN W. HOYLE, JR., Secretary.

On motion, this resolution was referred to the Board of Christian Education for consideration.

The memorial address following was delivered by W. L. Hutchins:

When some one asked Albert Einstein how he came to discover the law of relativity he replied by saying: "I did it by disputing an axiom." He was not the first Jew to dispute an axiom. Another one whose name was Paul looked one day into a gaping wound in the breast of earth and hurled his defiance at it. As Einstein disputed the finality of gravity, so Paul challenged the finality of the grave: "O grave, where is thy victory!" And there was still another Jew, greater than either of these, the latchet of whose shoes neither would stoop down to unloose, who went through life disputing axioms. He began it both in the manner of His birth and the place of His youthful residence. The world then was not accustomed to seeing greatness begin in a stable, and it was quite convinced that "no good thing could come out of Nazareth." In early life He disputed both axioms by declaring: "Wist ye not that I must be about My Father's business," and that business was to bring in the Kingdom of God among men. He began His ministry with a miracle that defied the laws of custom. The wine had given out at a Jewish wedding and with a graciousness of manner He substituted water, and the substitution was so delightful that the guests declared it was better than the wine. Every miracle He wrought was an acceptance to the challenge of the impossible. One day He saw a man whose arm was dangling hopelessly by his side. He told him to stretch it forth. Had I been there I am quite sure I would have sought to save the Master a bit of embarrassment by whispering to Him a little information. I would have said: "That arm is entirely helpless; he cannot move it." "But you do not understand," the Master would have said; "I came to give LIFE to things that are dead—Stretch forth thine hand."

In the light of a subsequent event there is almost a touch of humor in the wailing of the throng that followed the prostrate form of Jairus' daughter. "She is dead," they said. And their melancholy tones speak the despair of their hearts. Jesus did not accept their verdict. With an insight into the realities of life and the impotence of death he said with a calm assurance: "She is not dead." Then He who had come from the spirit world to live with us a little while, who understood its laws and could command its inhabitants, called to the soul of the damsel to come back and revitalize the house from which it had so recently departed. She came and the eyes began to open, the hands to move, the lips to part and the voice became articulate: "O father, I was not dead, and I shall never die." And that day brought joy unspeakable to the home of Jairus. Thank God, that joy shall be ours some day, my brethren. We hope for it now, we shall possess it then.

Even when He was enshrouded in the awful silence of death He could still dispute an axiom. If this old world ever rendered a unanimous verdict on any subject it was on the death of Christ. Concerning His end there were no minority reports. "He is dead" was the unanimous verdict of both friend and foe. His disciples had fled; the women had brought their spices to anoint His dead body, the tomb was sealed and Roman soldiers were guarding it with military zeal. But lo! A form appears in the door of that tomb. And "who is He that comes from Edom with dyed garments from Bozrah?" "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I was dead but I am alive forevermore." The verdict of both church and state had been reversed by the Supreme Court of Heaven and the celestial choir chants the decision: "Hallelujah, the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth!"

My brethren of the ministry, we are called to preach His Gospel, but what is the "gospel" we preach? Too often it is nothing more than our own personal opinion about some matter of trivial importance. Of course we must preach a gospel that saves from sin, but we must also preach a gospel that disputes the verdict of death. "Because I live, ye shall live also." Frankly, I become impatient sometimes with the lamentations we have to listen to at funerals. You listen in vain to hear a joyous note of triumph. "He has gone from us"; "His work was cut short"; "He fell in the midst of his task"; "Now that he has gone the work will suffer"; "He will be greatly missed"; "The community has lost a leader"; "There is no one to take his place," are some of the things we hear. Then the pastor reads from the Old Testament about the frailties of life and the depressing promise that we shall soon be cut off and fly away and be no more. (A great poem for old men in pensive moods). When I hear all that, I want to cry out in protest and say: "In the name of an empty tomb at the base of Golgotha's Hill, I will not accept your verdict." Let the poet speak to your hearts for all times:

"Ever near us though unseen
Their dear immortal spirits tread,
For all the boundless universe is life.
There are no dead."

It was my good fortune in 1934 to trail the martyrs all the way from the bloody block in London's Tower to the gory Hill of Golgotha. What a gruesome tale these dungeons, these blocks of death, these guillotines, these instruments of torture, these cups of hemlock, these isles of banishment, these crosses have to tell. It would be a melancholy jaunt indeed were there not some angel of life, some muse of history, to go along to dispute the verdict of death. What did Greece do when she pressed the cup of hemlock to the lips of Socrates? She made him immortal and killed herself. What happened to Savonarola when Lorenzo, the tyrant, bound him in jail? He gave the soul of the fiery monk to the ages and put out the light of the Medices. Stand with me by a pile of bones, crimsoned in their own blood, just outside the Coliseum yonder in Rome. The flesh has just appeased the hunger of ravenous beast, and this heap of bones is all that the human eye can see of a house in which an immortal soul lived. In my pagan sympathy I cry out: "How awful for human life and personality to end in such futility!" An humble Christian who has been faithful unto death stands by my side and disputes the verdict of bleaching bones. "Be assured," he said, "that their song of martyrdom will become the trumpet call of Christendom, summoning millions all round the globe to worship the Christ whose cross of martyrdom has become the symbol of the world's hope."

Since I accepted the invitation to prepare this brief address about one month ago, I have attended sixty-one (61) Annual Conferences. I was searching for inspiration and material for my speech. I met twenty-seven (27) Bishops, including our own Bishop Kern. Twenty-four of them had songs on their lips and harps in their hands. Bishops Denny, Darlington and Kern alone still hold the gavel. From each of these I received an appointment. The various tasks to which these Bishops assigned me were in keeping with the emphasis which each put upon life. Bishop Kavanaugh laid the Book in my hand and said, "Preach all the Word." Pierce said, "Above all things be devoted to Jesus Christ." Galloway, with a tone that sounded like a silver bell on an Easter morning, said: "Despise not thy gifts, but use them for God's glory." Bishop Hendrix showed me how nobility of birth and humility of character can be combined into a glorious sainthood. Wilson said: "Be a scholar and use your scholarship for God." Morrison: "Be ye perfect as your Father in Heaven is perfect." Duncan spoke as though he wanted to correct a wrong impression he might have made when with us and said: "Be child-like." Fitzgerald, the most human of them all, said: "Put your arms beneath suffering humanity and lift them lovingly." Lambuth: "Do one thing well and do it to the ends of the earth." Kilgo: "Hold on to your eternal sonship." Atkins: "The Kingdom is in the cradle—Let no man despise thy youth." Mouzon: "Preach—preach the Word." Kern: "Let justice run down as waters and righteousness as a mighty stream."

Brethren, let me stand before you these fathers of the church and let me borrow from the lips of the eloquent Galloway a sentence that will express the prayer of our hearts: Lord God of these ascended Elijahs, be our God and answer us by fire!

But it is not of the mighty that my heart sings. More learned minds and eloquent lips can do that far better. I speak rather of the worthy achievements in character and usefulness of a class of men whom we have called Methodist circuit riders. What a host of heroes whose praises no one sang until Dr. Garber gave us "The Romance of Methodism." Quite true that we have had great leaders; it is of equal significance and just as worthy of note that we have had great followers. We have had great Bishops to send us forth, but they have had great men to send. The consecrated minds of our leaders have made plans for us but the constructive hands of the Methodist pastors have executed them. If Bishops and elders have been men of vision, seeing far out amidst the stars, it has been men like you who have built the ladder by which we have climbed. All honor to the men who have planted the seeds of the Kingdom along far-flung frontiers. Let us praise also the men who have watered these seeds with their salt tears and who have even fed their roots with their life's blood.

When the early settler "built his barns and strung his fences" simultaneously with the sound of the hammer that broke the silence of the virgin forest was the voice of the circuit rider singing in the ear of this pioneer:

"Sent by my Lord, on you I call,
The invitation is to all.
Come all the world, come sinner thou,
All things in Christ are ready now."

It can be truthfully said that when the foundations for America's present greatness were laid, the Methodist preacher was there with his open Bible preaching full salvation for all through faith in the blood of the Son of God.

But we do not have to return to years remote to find heroism of which I speak. It is evidenced in the day in which we are now living. There are occasions that demand heroic action as much now as then, and it is the Methodist pastor who must and will meet the test. It is quite easy to speak your prophetic message into the ears of a congregation when you know that in a few hours you will be beyond the reach of the contumelious stone. It is different when you have to remain with Mammon, whose greed you have condemned and whose power you have challenged. It is not hard to preach the Social Creed of the Churches of Christ in America when your pay check is mailed to you from an office in New York City, but when that check comes from wealthy men in your own congregation who do not believe the Social Creed, then it is a different matter. God be merciful to that Methodist preacher who sees the chubby hands of the children of the poor extended to him in piteous plea to speak their woe, and that plea reinforced by an echo from Nazareth: "I did it," when he knows that such action might mean a diminished crust for his own child. "But, I must do it regardless," says he, "for it is the way of the Cross and my soul is not for sale." All honor to her as well who says: "John, be a prophet for God. I can make over the children's clothes and they will look almost like new." These are the Methodist preachers who toil up new Calvaries with the Cross that turns not back and they are here today.

Speak Methodist history; who are life's victors!

Unroll the long annals and say: John Tillett, Walter Creasy, Hardin Atkins, Uncle Dan Atkins, L. E. Stacy, G. W. Ivey, J. E. Woosley, J. C. Rowe, R. M. Hoyle, A. J. Burrus, J. A. J. Farrington, E. E. Williamson, and a host of others of whom the world was not worthy.

I spoke a while ago of my pilgrimage through the years to 61 Annual Conferences. I found the Conference of 1882 in deep gloom. A giant cedar had fallen that year and there was a lonesome place against the sky. An Elijah had ascended and there was no Elisha in sight. I heard the man who read his memoir say concerning him: "What a vacuum his death has made in the educational world." Vacuum! When he used that word I cried to Heaven for its book of antonyms. "What is that word that means exactly the opposite to vacuum?" The Divine philologist put his finger on a word and I looked and behold it was Duke University. Did Braxton Craven leave behind him a vacuum? Has any Methodist preacher left behind him a vacuum? Grim death comes in swaggering and says, "Yes, a vacuum"; and sometimes we, in our ignorance, agree. O Mother Methodism, made valiant, militant, triumphant, by their arduous labors and heroic lives, stand above their sleeping ashes all round the globe, and with thy soul rekindled at Aldersgate, and with tongue of flame dispute the verdict.

Lord God of these ascended Elijahs, be our God and answer us by fire.

At all times accurate and alert, his records have been the best specimens of the Secretary's art. Through the years he has edited the Conference Journal and made it a model that other Conference Secretaries delighted to copy. There have been few men with the secretarial capacity of W. L. Sherrill. Our love and prayers will follow this brother beloved, whose perfect records stretch across the forty-four years now closing. And we request that the portrait of Brother Sherrill appear as the frontispiece of the Journal of this Conference."

"Whereas, this is done over the expressed will of the people in elections called for decision of this very question, and,

"Whereas, they still endeavor to extend the traffic by legal and illegal means, therefore,

"Be it Resolved: That we hold the last three sessions of the General Assembly of North Carolina responsible for these deplorable conditions, and, while we most heartily commend those who voted against these measures extending the liquor traffic, we rebuke those members who betrayed the people of North Carolina by promoting the sale of such beverages to our people. We call for the retirement from public office of every public official who has consented, directly or indirectly, to this betrayal of public trust, and be it further

"Resolved, that we, as Christian people, call upon all citizens of North Carolina to join with us in seeing that only those who favor full prohibition of the traffic in alcoholic beverages be elected to public office in North Carolina, and, more particularly to the General Assembly of North Carolina. And that this end may be achieved, be it further

"Resolved, that this Conference appoint a Committee of nine, one to each District, to direct our efforts in this action, and that we call upon all other Christian churches of North Carolina to join with us in destroying the liquor evil among our people. And be it further

"Resolved, that this constituted Committee represent us in organizing all the dry sentiment of the state that our efforts may be effective in the next primaries and election of public officials in this state."

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

This Board is fully conscious of its obligations and privileges in connection with the Aldersgate Commemoration to be observed during the coming months, and we pledge our unreserved support to the members of the Conference Aldersgate Commission in the plans they make for the promotion of this celebration in the charges of our Conference. Our staff workers have been instructed to give much time and thought to the development of local church workers who shall be able, in co-operation with the pastors, to make possible the attainment of the goals to which the Commemoration points.

Of the total apportionment by the Commission on Budget to this Board of $40,877.00, we recommend that the apportionment for local church work be $12,000.00, and that the apportionment for schools and colleges be $28,877.00.

A. THE LOCAL CHURCH

The following recommendations are made to pastors and church school workers:

1. CHILDREN'S DIVISION

(a) The cultivation of parents of small children through frequent visits in the homes by workers in the Children's Division and through emphasis upon the baptism of children.

(b) Careful training of children for meaningful membership in the church.

(c) Ministering to more unchurched children.

2. YOUNG PEOPLE'S DIVISION

(a) Through Young People's Unions, District Meetings, Retreats, and any special young people's gatherings that may be arranged, the Conference staff and the District Directors of Young People's Work should seek to guide young people in their interpretation of the Aldersgate Commemoration.

(b) The work of the Committee on Evangelism and Church Relationships should be clarified and emphasized throughout the first half of the new Conference year.

3. ADULT DIVISION

(a) Through adult classes and divisions a study of the history, mission, and message of Methodism should be made. Teachers and officers in local churches are especially reminded of the following texts: Watkins, Out of Aldersgate; Joy, John Wesley's Awakening; and Rowe, The Methodist Church: Its Message and Work.

(b) Visitation evangelism in each adult class should be the most outstanding activity during the coming year.

4. GENERAL

(a) Give worship an adequate place in all workers' meetings.

(b) Stronger emphasis upon church school enrollment and attendance.

(c) The church school literature is one of the most connectional things in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Every Sunday hundreds of thousands of Southern Methodists contact these official periodicals. Over 31,900,000 copies of these periodicals reach nearly two millions of our people each year. It is highly important that all of our membership use their own Methodist literature rather than be cut off from the program of the church by the use of non-Methodist materials.

The January issue of the Adult Student will be a special Aldersgate issue. Every issue during the next few months will undergird this emphasis. The other periodicals will carry stories about Methodism, outstanding articles dealing with Methodism's modern task. The Christian Home will carry material to help parents to quicken the spiritual life of the home and to help their children to become vital Christians. The Church School Day Program for 1938 will have as its theme, "The Warm Heart." The elective courses appearing in the Adult Student carrying the Aldersgate emphasis are Life at Its Best, by Moreland, October to December, 1937; Making Disciples, by Score, January to March, 1938; and The Spiritual Significance of Protestantism, by Watkins, April to June, 1938.

5. FURTHER SUGGESTED EMPHASES

We suggest that in the work of the young people there be considered:

First, the possibility of two summer assemblies; one for a senior group, including those of the ages 15 to 18 years; and one for the young people 18 to 24 years of age.

Second, the advisability of electing a Conference Director of Young People's Work by the beginning of the Conference year 1938-1939.

Third, the continuation and enlargement of the Christian Adventure Camp program as fast as equipment and leadership are available.

Fourth, the promotion of attendance of representatives from our colleges to the Methodist Student Conference at St. Louis, December 28, 29, 30, 1937.

In the work of the Adult Division we advise the provision of sub-district meetings of adults in which a definite program of activities will be planned for churches represented.

We further urge a wider participation in the Assembly programs at Lake Junaluska that are provided especially for the adults, especially the Conference School for Christian Workers.

We are gratified to observe that there is a quickening of interest in the observance of the fourth Sunday in each month as Missionary Day with an offering for the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise. There were twelve more churches making the observance this year than last, and the increase in offering amounted to more than $1,600.00. The value of this observance and offering is again strongly emphasized, and every church school in the Conference that is not participating, is urged to do so.

More churches observed Church School Day than last year, but the offering was slightly less. We consider this an important observance. It has the two-fold value of laying stress on the work of the church school, and of financially assisting our Conference Board of Christian Education. A wide observance of this day is urged.

We recommend the election of the following staff:

Rev. Carl H. King, Executive Secretary	$3,200.00
Rev. Jesse G. Wilkinson, Extension Secretary and Director of Adult Work	2,100.00
Miss Elizabeth Oliver, Director of Children's Work	1,800.00
Mrs. John F. Kirk, Office Secretary	1,200.00
Rev. C. P. Bowles, Associate Director of Adult Work	(without salary)

B. SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

I. RUTHERFORD COLLEGE

We recommend that the Conference continue for a period of one year the appropriation of $1,140 to the Trustees of Rutherford College for the payment of interest on second mortgage bonds of $19,000 issued by Rutherford College, the said amount to be paid to the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of Rutherford College upon the submission to the President of this Board of a complete audit of all financial affairs of Rutherford College, the said audit to be prepared by a certified public accountant.

II. DAVENPORT COLLEGE

Your Board had before it the following resolution passed by the Board of Trustees of Davenport College in session October 12, 1937:

"Resolved, by the Board of Trustees of Davenport College in session October 12, 1937, that this Board of Trustees respectfully petitions the Western North Carolina Conference at Asheville, October 20, to abandon all effort to operate a school at Lenoir, N. C., and to set up a Board of Trust, consisting of five members, with F. C. Sherrill, Chairman, to assemble all the available assets and to hold the same intact as a perpetual trust, the income of which endowment or trust fund is to be used to pay by loan or gift the expenses of young women in our church schools, preferably Greensboro, or Brevard.

"It is further requested that instead of having this Board of Trustees as at present constituted, that five members of the present Board be named to constitute this Board of Trust."

(Signed) F. C. SHERRILL, Chairman,
J. W. HOYLE, Secretary.

The report of Greensboro College contains the following statement:

"That the Trustees of Greensboro College did resume negotiations with the Trustees of Davenport College as requested by the Western North Carolina Conference, but found themselves unable to comply with the condition included in the resolutions of the Conference requiring, 'that, should a merger be effected, a school for young women either of high grade preparatory or junior college grade be operated at the plant in Lenoir under the auspices of the Trustees of the institution located in Greensboro'."

Your Board recommends, therefore:

1. That Davenport College be closed permanently.
2. That a Board of Trust, consisting of F. C. Sherrill, Chairman, A. G. Foard, F. B. Bunch, Dr. J. B. Craven, and Rev. Loy D. Thompson be constituted by this Conference and incorporated under the laws of North Carolina to administer the trust funds created under the resolution, and that their successors be nominated by the Board of Christian Education and confirmed by the Annual Conference, and that all property, real and personal, now held by the Board of Trustees of Davenport College, be transferred to the Board of Trust herein created, the said Board of Trust to make an annual report to the Western North Carolina Conference.
3. That this Board be authorized to sell all real estate in Lenoir, N. C., belonging to Davenport College, preferably to the Trustees of the Lenoir School District, at such a price as may appear wise to the Board of Trust herein created.
4. That all movable assets of Davenport College be transferred to Brevard College with the exception of such books in the library as were contributed by the City of Lenoir or the citizens thereof, these books to be turned over to the Board of Trustees of the Caldwell County Public Library.

5. That the income from the trust funds created by the resolution be used to pay, by loan or gift, the expenses of young women in our church schools, preferably Brevard College; and

We recommend further that the income from the B. N. Duke Endowment Fund of $50,000 be directed to Greensboro College.

III. BREVARD COLLEGE

We rejoice in the continued prosperity of Brevard College. The enrollment there is now equal to that of all the colleges merged into this institution. We most heartily endorse the campaign to increase the endowments and to expand the facilities of this college.

IV. GREENSBORO COLLEGE

We are happy to note that Greensboro College has opened the academic year under the most favorable auspices, having an enrollment of 371, the largest in the history of the institution. Progress is being made in plans initiated by the Trustees and approved by the Annual Conferences for increasing the endowment and providing necessary additional equipment at Greensboro College. We bespeak the hearty co-operation of the Western North Carolina Conference and the Methodist public in the successful prosecution of these worthy objectives.

V. DUKE UNIVERSITY

This great institution of learning, under the patronage of our Conference, makes steady progress and constantly widens its circle of influence. More students are enrolled than at any period in its history. We heartily endorse efforts being made to increase the endowment and congratulate the institution upon the progress being made in carrying out plans for the Centennial celebration to be held in 1938.

We recommend that the sum of $1,140 be used for the payment of the coupons of the $19,000 second mortgage bonds of Rutherford College as they mature, on the conditions indicated in this report; and that other appropriations be made as follows:

Pastors' School	$ 400.00
Duke University (Ivey Chair)	3,000.00
Duke University (Religious Training)	3,000.00
Greensboro College	6,000.00
Brevard College	6,000.00
E. M. Cole Trust Fund	500.00
Sustentation Fund	1,000.00

We recommend the confirmation of the following Trustees:

1. Brevard College: H. A. Dunham to succeed D. D. Holt, transferred, term expiring in 1939; H. C. Sprinkle, R. O. Lindsay, R. T. Amos, Paul Hardin, Jr., James B. McLarty, Guy Weaver—terms expiring 1943.

2. Greensboro College: Miss Annie Laurie Lowrance and T. C. Hoyle, Sr.

3. Duke University: J. H. Barnhardt, Jas. A. Bell, R. G. Cherry, J. Raymond Smith.

We recommend as Managers of the Pastors' School: O. V. Woosley, C. H. King, L. L. Gobbel, P. N. Garber.

We recommend the following appointments: O. L. Simpson, Associate Editor, Church School Publications, General Board of Christian Education; H. B.

Trimble, Professor Emory University; G. T. Rowe, P. N. Garber, Professors Duke University; W. M. Curtis, Treasurer Greensboro College; R. A. Smith, Professor Greensboro College; C. H. King, Executive Secretary, Board of Christian Education; J. G. Wilkinson, Extension Secretary, Board of Christian Education; M. B. Stokes, Jr., student at Boston University; J. S. Higgins and J. Max Brandon, Jr., students at Duke University.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

Today, perhaps, as never before, the religious editor is facing a golden opportunity. He stands on the watch-tower of Zion and his vision is unclouded. He can speak the truth untrammelled by evil forces. But an editor, though a genius, cannot make bricks without straw. He cannot inform the mind of the church and fashion its thinking without readers. If his voice is to be heard, his hearers must be gathered for him. In this connection, our pastors have an opportunity of rendering real service to their people.

We are gratified to note that our church school literature is constantly being improved and that more and more of our churches are turning to its use. Our Publishing House issues literature suitable for every type of school and better periodicals are not to be found anywhere.

We would earnestly urge our people to use discrimination in the selection of books which they read. Too often we are like the lady who, going into a market to order meat, exercised the utmost care in its selection, but who, upon going to the library to secure a book and being asked what book she wanted, replied, "Oh, anything to kill time." Many good books are available today and we ought, in every possible way, to bring them to the attention of our people. We mention only a few, but the reading of these books will amply repay us for the time and money invested in them.

1. John Wesley's Awakening, Joy.
2. John Wesley, Vullemay.
3. Spirit of Methodism, Betts.
4. Wesley and His Century, Fitchett.
5. John Wesley and Modern Religion, Umphrey Lee.

The constantly increasing circulation of the Upper Room is a manifestation of the prevailing heart-hunger of this generation and an evidence of the fact that this devotional booklet is ministering effectively to the need thus created. Perhaps the greatest tribute paid to the Upper Room is that it "seems to fit in anywhere." Old and young alike are using it and thus enriching their spiritual life. Last year a single group of more than 300 young people used this booklet as a guide to daily worship in their summer assembly.

We would again call your attention to the importance of subscribing for and reading the World Outlook. The editor of this periodical is doing the church a splendid service. He is keeping before our people the happenings of interest and importance in the field of missions and also in every phase of church activity. Beautiful in its appearance and attractive in its make-up, this magazine ought to appeal to the whole church, and, if given the opportunity, will do much toward stimulating new interest along every line.

We are gratified over the fact that the New Methodist Hymnal has found such a hearty welcome. Churches are finding ways of supplying themselves with this great collection of hymns and by easy payment plans, the Publishing House is endeavoring to place the Hymnal in all the churches.

The report of the Publishing House shows a profit of $111,748.71 for the past year. Of this amount the sum of $100,000.00 has been appropriated to the supernuminate ministers. The amount coming to this Conference is $4,640.56.

Standing, as we are, upon the threshold of the Aldersgate Commemoration, we would emphasize anew the importance of our Christian Advocates. Whatever benefits that may come to us as a result of this event, we may be assured that our church papers will make a large contribution to its success. For this reason, along with many others, we ought to make a special effort to place an Advocate in every home.

The Christian Advocate has a claim on our people which ought not to be treated lightly. This great church paper, which is put out at much less than it actually costs, serves as an expression of our life and thought and as a channel of denominational information. Our people need this paper and will be greatly benefited by subscribing for and reading it.

It is gratifying to note that the North Carolina Christian Advocate had an appreciable increase in its subscription list during the year. The number of our people, however, who are receiving the Conference organ, is still far too small. During the coming year the publishers will make a special effort to get new subscribers. Pastors and laymen can aid greatly this effort by giving to the Advocate the attention which it deserves.

We recommend the election of Dr. S. B. Turrentine to succeed himself on the Board of Publication.

(Signed) R. C. GOFORTH, Chairman,
A. C. TIPPETT, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF MISSIONS

Your Board of Missions rejoices in the achievements of our Conference during the year just closed. We have been able both to maintain and increase the level of our benevolent contributions and at the same time take a front-line place in the successful Bishops' Crusade. With $22,300.00 subscribed and $21,574.00 already paid, our Conference stands second in Southern Methodism in both of these items.

And, happy to tell, the best of the story is that this achievement has come to pass with real enthusiasm. Now we seem ready to approach humbly and prayerfully the second step in the Bishops' Crusade, the Aldersgate Commemoration. We welcome and commend this opportunity to engage together with universal Methodism in seeking an Aldersgate heart-warming experience for ourselves and our generation. In this we hope to find strength to combat and turn back the tide of spiritual lethargy that grows out of wars past and strengthens itself on wars present and to come, on social unrighteousness, on economic and industrial injustice, and on the age-old spirit of selfishness.

To this end we enthusiastically enter into the plans of our church for the Aldersgate Commemoration to be held in Savannah, Georgia, January 11-14, and recommend that every phase of the plans be studied and observed in spirit, and so far as is possible, in fact.

1. That as many of our people as possible attend the Commemoration in Savannah.

2. That the District Institutes be emphasized and made real means of information, training, and discussion that will enable the whole of the local churches the better to take active inspirational part in the work. The following are the dates and places for holding these District Institutes, together with the names of the District Secretaries:

Waynesville—January 18, at Waynesville	W. A. Barber, Secretary

3. That we commend the appointment of District Missionary Secretaries and pledge them our support.

We make the following nominations:

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

It is gratifying to note the liquidation of many old debts and the manner in which new projects have been promoted. In view of the Aldersgate Commemoration this Board hopes for a revival of church building in the many neglected areas within our bounds, and in order for this Board to assist in these new enterprises we wish to make the following recommendations:

1. That each local congregation provide funds sufficient for the upkeep of their present buildings.
2. That the stronger churches co-operate in giving aid to needy projects in their localities.
3. That more consideration be given to the matter of providing adequate and comfortable homes for our ministers.
4. That ample insurance be carried on all church property.

Owing to the fact that funds coming into the hands of your Board of Church Extension is very limited, we have not been able to assist all worthy projects. However, your Executive Committee and Board have carefully considered all applications presented, and wish to report the following:

REPORT OF BOARD OF FINANCE

Your Board of Finance had an increase in total resources this year. This makes it possible to give some increase in payments in most cases. There are sixty-nine men, eighty women, and one child receiving support from this Board.

Rev. C. S. Kirkpatrick has been appointed to represent the Superannuate Endowment Fund in the Conference. He is requested to make plans to secure payment of pledges that may be in force some time in the spring. Rev. E. O. Cole is appointed to act as agent to secure homes for superannuated preachers. He is to serve without salary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

Your Board of Lay Activities notes, with a degree of satisfaction, progress in the material and financial phases of the work of the church in the Western North Carolina Conference. New churches and parsonages have been built. Old debts have been liquidated. There are evidences of new hopefulness and, here and there, a disposition to accept more of the askings for General and Conference work.

STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE

We do not feel, however, that the improvement in the economic life of our country has been adequately reflected in increased giving. It is urgent, therefore, that sentiment should be aroused and our people led to a proper appreciation and practice of Christian stewardship. We recommend that all our churches should hold out before themselves, as the ultimate goal, the acceptance and payment of 100% of the askings. To this end we suggest:

1. A strong program of information and inspiration for each first Quarterly Conference before the vote is taken on the acceptance of askings.
2. Co-operation of presiding elders, pastors, and lay leaders in the methods now available for institutes, study classes, and other programs for the training of laymen in principles and practices of stewardship.
3. The use of leaflets, books, and other literature on the subject of stewardship and finance.

We suggest furthermore:

1. The goal of one-half of the benevolences by the session of the District Conference for 1937-1938.
2. A goal of benevolences paid in full one month before the session of the Annual Conference.
3. Adequate support of the ministry.
4. The opportunity which laymen have of aiding the families of deceased ministers by joining in the Conference Brotherhood.

LAYMEN'S DAY

We recommend the observance of Laymen's Day on the second Sunday in June, or as near thereto as practicable, and that the program of the General Board of Lay Activities, "Why Go To Church?" be used as a basis of the program for the day. We suggest that laymen be used as speakers on this occasion and on other occasions as opportunity and need may arise.

OUR CHURCH PAPER

We recommend the North Carolina Christian Advocate as a powerful and indispensable influence in the educational, social, moral and religious life of the state, and urge that earnest efforts be made to place our church paper in the home of every official member of the church and, in so far as possible, in every Methodist home in the Conference.

EVANGELISM

We are encouraged by the evidences of renewed efforts in evangelism. We urge that laymen seek to employ continuously all available means of grace to the end that each may ever grow more Christ-like in his own inner life and seek to have a definite part in carrying out the Great Commission "to make disciples of all men." We suggest co-operation with the pastor, the church school, and other agencies in their evangelistic programs, and in all the plans for the proper celebration of the Aldersgate Commemoration.

ECONOMIC JUSTICE

We state again the conviction that it is not enough merely to ameliorate the suffering of the poor and the unfortunate. There is the need of removing the causes of human suffering. We propose that the time has come when intelligent effort should be made to prevent degrading poverty and unfair dealing. We commend those employers and employees who are endeavoring to work together with a common understanding and regard for the rights of each other.

TEMPERANCE

We decry the fact that drunkenness is on the increase. We urge that Christian people everywhere give battle to the liquor interests, who with boldness are teaching many of our people, women and children as well as men, to drink.

We urge, therefore:

1. A temperance program at each District Conference.
2. Co-operation with the church school in plans for educating concerning the evils of alcohol.
3. Co-operation with all agencies fighting the legalized sale of liquor when a battle is to be waged in the state, counties, or other political unit.
4. Requirement of public officers that they rigidly enforce all prohibition laws in dry territory and regulatory laws enacted to protect society in localities where the sale of liquor is legalized.
5. Total abstinence from the use of every kind of alcoholic liquor as a beverage.
6. The nomination of no person for membership on the Board of Stewards who drinks intoxicating liquors or who is known to be in sympathy with the sale of strong drink.

WORLD PEACE

The thickening war clouds over the world today challenge the Christian church and Christian people to increased efforts to create attitude of peace. We, therefore, suggest:

1. That our preachers and teachers use every opportunity to speak against war and in the interest of world peace.
2. That co-operation be given every agency, including especially the National Council for the Prevention of War and the Institute of International Relations conducted annually at Duke University.

We request an appropriation of $1,000.00 for Lay Activities for 1937-1938.

We pledge our co-operation with the efforts of the Conference to support the work of Dr. Richard E. Strain, now in China as a special missionary of the Western North Carolina Conference.

We nominate Mr. A. J. Kirby, of Gastonia, for the position of Conference Lay Leader of the Western North Carolina Conference.

Paul F. Evans was re-elected Secretary.

T. C. Hoyle was re-elected Treasurer.

(Signed) A. J. KIRBY, Chairman,
PAUL F. EVANS, Secretary.

CHILDREN'S HOME REPORT

Article I of the Constitution of the Children's Home reads: "This institution shall be known as the Children's Home of the Western North Carolina Conference, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Incorporated, according to charter, and shall have for its object the support, care, and training of indigent and orphan children of the white race."

For a little over twenty-eight years your Children's Home has been doing what it was incorporated to do. Its growth and development through this period of time has been very remarkable. Beginning its operations in a few dilapidated wooden buildings, it has grown to be quite a village of substantial buildings. The population has grown from the one little girl who entered on September morn, 1909, to 401 boys and girls now enrolled.

Eighteen brick buildings and twenty wooden buildings now serve to house the Children's Home family. The Home owns 813 acres of land, 366 being at the Home place in Winston-Salem and 447 in Davie County. This acreage does not include a poor farm of 145 acres in Iredell County. Our farming and dairying operations have shown quite appreciable growth. We are cultivating 435 acres in such a way as to be quite profitable. Our dairy herd is now providing a quart of good milk per day for each child.

A working staff of forty-seven members direct our family of children. Everyone of these workers is morally fit and is sufficiently fit educationally to do a good job in directing childhood and youth. We have no worker who does not love boys and girls. No harsh disciplinary punishment is found necessary. Our youngsters are coming more and more to regard their stay at the Children's Home as a matter of great privilege. For the most part they do their assigned work as a project into which they can willingly and enthusiastically employ themselves.

Two hundred and thirty of our children are in the elementary school, conducted under state and city direction, on the Home grounds and 130 boys and girls are in the Richard J. Reynolds High School, in Winston-Salem. Three young women are taking a beauty culture course and five are in training for becoming nurses. Eighteen of our high school graduates are continuing their training in nine colleges and universities.

There is no evidence of any decrease in the number of pressing requests for the admittance of children. So far the Social Security program has not in the least caused a lessening of the pressure placed upon us for the admission of children. Because of federal, state and county aid for dependent children we are enabled to practice a little more discretion as to the type of children admitted. The wisdom of admitting only such children as present a reasonable assurance that they can wisely use the privileges offered is becoming more and more manifest. The mental level and moral stamina of our family are gradually being lifted. Your Children's Home is not so much a welfare agency as a character forming institution.

The operation of the Social Security program is beginning to make itself materially felt upon our mothers' aid department. Already a majority of our mothers' aid families are in process of being transferred to the county welfare departments for providing aid to their dependent children. However, not all our mothers' aid service can thus be turned over to the county welfare forces, since some cases cannot meet the prescribed legal requirements. A limited amount of mothers' aid work and such other kindred service as will aid those dependent children who have a claim on our church and who cannot be adequately served by state agencies will be continued.

It is not the policy of your child-caring institution to place children for legal adoption. Most of the boys and girls who come to the Children's Home have relatives who hope to sometime reclaim them into the family circle and to aid them in establishing themselves at remunerative and serviceable work. Children are admitted for such length of time as is thought to be necessary to fit them for accepting the challenges of life in a constructive way.

We continue to operate on a balanced budget, even though our family has increased more than have our contributions. The income from our productive enterprises has helped us greatly. We hope that our friends will continue their financial support in an even more liberal way. It is our hope that at least 400 indigent and orphan children may continually find a happy home at the Children's Home, a place where they may grow and develop in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

In place of Rev. J. T. Mangum, whose health is impaired and who has moved into another area, your Board of Trustees has elected Dr. W. W. Peele to its membership. In place of J. L. Nelson, deceased, your Board has elected T. Austin Finch to its membership. Their term of election having expired, James A. Gray, Charles W. Gunter, Rev. T. B. Johnston, R. G. Stockton, and Fred N. Tate have been re-elected for six years to membership on the Board. These new members and re-elected members are submitted to the Conference for confirmation.

(Signed) T. F. MARR, Chairman Board of Trustees.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON SPIRITUAL LIFE

One thing that will contribute to the deepening of the spiritual life and give it stability and continuance is the restoration of the family altar to its proper place in Christian worship. Many things have contributed to the waning of its influence, and perhaps none more than the forms which have been used in family worship. While the underlying spirit deserves only the highest praise, the facts remain that, until recent days, the church has failed to provide suitable material for its enrichment. In that remarkably successful series of booklets—The Upper Room—our Board of Missions is now meeting this need. Its circulation should be extended until every home in our Methodism establishes a family altar for the daily worship of our Heavenly Father. We urge our pastors to extend its circulation and to instruct our people in its use.

Methodism occupies a peculiar place in the religious world. With all its insistence on the warming of the heart, it has never demanded this experience of those who wish to unite with the church. The founding fathers were well aware of the fact that the desire to be saved from sin and to flee from the wrath to come was the beginning of all Christian experience and those having this desire were freely admitted to its communion. At the other end of experience they knew from their own experience that there is an attainable degree of perfection in Christian love; and that somewhere between these degrees of experience there would come the certain knowledge that God does, through Christ, bring us into the fellowship that has warmed the hearts of millions of men and will eventually cleanse the soul of the world.

It is not within the province of your commission to question the validity of the experience of any of our pastors or people, but we would lift up Jesus, who draws all men to Him; and with those of long ago, cry, "Behold the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sins of the world!"

In the exercise of this divine prerogative we pray that we may not lose ourselves in futile efforts to standardize Christian experience. Let us never forget that the babe, born into this world, is the subject of the saving grace of Christ; and has a place in the church that must never be taken away from him; nor should we forget that the ripest saint has never comprehended the length and breadth and height and depth of the love of Christ.

Celebration of past events has a tendency to crystallize around certain phases of that period and to preserve the expressions which become eventually empty of significance or obsolete, through constant repetition. It is good to remember what occurred at Aldersgate, but it is of vastly greater importance that more wonderful manifestations of saving grace be revealed unto the children of this day—adequate to the needs of the hour; else we lose the inheritance bequeathed to us by the generations that are gone.

Every Methodist who has ever stood at the altar of the church has solemnly ratified the vows and promised to “renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of this world, with all the covetous desires of the same—and all carnal desires of the flesh—and constantly to believe God’s holy word, and obediently keep his commandments.” We have not approximated these minimum requirements for Christian fellowship. From the cradle roll to the episcopacy we would urge their observance as a prerequisite to the revival fires which we desire to see blaze upon our altars; for our God is a consuming fire as well as a quickening spirit. Without this re-dedication of ourselves, what avail will our call be to a sinning, suffering world?

We are well aware resolutions adopted by Annual Conferences may mean much or little in the life of the church. We have tried to state our convictions in simple, homely language that the church understands. What we do here is of little moment unless it sends us home with radiant hearts. Shall we not here and now submit ourselves to the reviving power of the Holy Spirit of the mighty God? We ask our Bishop to give the ringing call that has marked every step of progress in the church; and let us bow again in the fellowship of consecration to Jesus Christ and wait before Him until the Holy Ghost descends in power upon us!

REPORT OF FINDINGS COMMITTEE ON ALDERSGATE COMMEMORATION

The Committee appointed by the presiding Bishop to consider the co-operation of this Conference in the Aldersgate Commemoration now beginning has heard an outline of the general plan and begs to report as follows:

NATURE OF THE COMMEMORATION

The Commemoration is a spiritual movement under the direction of the College of Bishops and participated in by all the Boards and other agencies of the church. It proposes to commemorate the bi-centennial of Mr. Wesley’s “heart-warming experience” in Aldersgate Street, London, by leading our church into a deeper and more vital religious experience. It has no financial objective of any kind, save as such may voluntarily be assumed by a local church for its own purposes. It does not undertake any new tasks nor create any new organizations. It seeks a great spiritual awakening in the church, and it proposes to bring modern Methodism the power and spirit which was the possession of early Methodism. It will endeavor to motivate all the programs of the church with a new spiritual experience.

THE NEED FOR SUCH AN AWAKENING

That such a movement as this is greatly needed is apparent to all. A spiritual revival, in fact, is the greatest need of the church and the world, a need which embraces all other needs. If this can come about, most of our other problems will be easy of solution.

The time is at hand when every energy of the church should be devoted to this end. We have an opportunity now that may not come to us again in this generation. In the hearts of our preachers and people alike there is a sense of spiritual need and a longing for a more personal touch with God. The Aldersgate Bi-centennial comes at a providential moment and enables us to focus the minds of our people upon spiritual reality and the original genius of Methodism. Our Bishops have been wise in their decision to utilize this historic occasion for the purpose of revitalizing the faith and experience of the church.

In this we are greatly interested and we place ourselves on record as determined to support the Aldersgate Commemoration in every possible way. To our Bishops, and especially to Bishop Frank Smith, Director of the Commemoration, we pledge our whole-hearted co-operation in carrying out every detail of the Commemoration plan. We call upon our preachers immediately to begin spiritual preparation in their own lives and churches, to inform themselves concerning the history, doctrines and work of Methodism, and to pray earnestly for the success of the entire movement.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

We confirm the appointment of the College of Bishops of the following persons to constitute our Conference Aldersgate Committee:

Bishop Paul B. Kern	Chairman
Rev. L. B. Abernethy	Conference Missionary Secretary
Rev. Carl H. King	Executive Secretary of Christian Education
A. J. Kirby	Conference Lay Leader
Mrs. C. C. Weaver	Conference President, Woman's Missionary Society
Dr. C. C. Weaver	Bishops' Crusade Director for last year

OUR PARTICIPATION

The preachers and other people of the Western North Carolina Conference will do their utmost to assist in the realization of the spiritual objectives of the Aldersgate Commemoration. To that end we will employ every means of grace to secure a more vital experience of religion in the heart of every preacher and local church official and teacher; and a general religious awakening in every congregation. We will labor, therefore, not alone for a deepening of our own spiritual life, but for the bringing of multitudes who are strangers to that which is vital in religion, to a personal experience in Christ as Saviour and Lord. In all this we pledge our earnest support to the Bishops of our church in carrying out the Aldersgate Commemoration.

(Signed) R. M. COURTNEY, Chairman,
A. C. GIBBS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BIBLE BOARD

The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments contain the inspired Word of God, and are fundamental to our faith.

Your Bible Board reports with satisfaction on the activities and achievements of the American Bible Society. The New York City headquarters of the Society were moved recently to a commodious new building nearer the heart of the city. In addition, definite progress was made in the unification of the Society's work with that of other Bible societies abroad so that both in the United States and in the foreign field, the Society is effectively adapting itself to the demands and opportunities of these significant days.

Translation of the Bible, or parts, into many new languages or dialects has been done.

Publication has followed translations of the Scriptures into many languages.

DISTRIBUTION

The Bible Society's chief task, of course, is the distribution of the Scriptures. During the year 1936, through its District and Division Secretaries in the United States and its Agency Secretaries abroad, the Society put in circulation, in upwards of forty countries, a total of over 7,760,000 Bibles, Testaments, Gospels and Portions, an increase of more than half a million over the preceding year. Of this number, more than 3,000,000 volumes were distributed in the United States. Especially cheering was the progress in Scripture distribution in Brazil, where more Scriptures were distributed than in any of the Agency's fifty years of history. The Secretary of that great mission field, pleading for a larger appropriation, stated that his colporteurs and workers were limited only by insufficient funds.

A much appreciated factor of the Society's ministry is its service to the blind. Volumes in Braille or similar systems cost from two to eight dollars to manufacture. These the Society furnishes at twenty-five cents per volume and offers "talking book" disc records at the same price. In 1936 there were furnished to the blind 3,939 embossed volumes, bringing the total number of embossed volumes distributed since the beginning of such work to over 125,000 in twenty-five languages and systems.

UNIVERSAL BIBLE SUNDAY

December 12, being the second Sunday, has been set apart by the Society as Bible Sunday. The Society will furnish material for the use of the pastors for the celebration of Bible Sunday.

This Sunday should be used to emphasize the importance of the Bible in the home and the lives of our people. And the need of its distribution emphasized, getting Bibles into all the homes of our people and into the hands of all children who can read.

AIDS FOR CHURCHES AND PASTORS

Your Board would call attention to the valuable aids obtainable from the Society for magnifying the Bible and its use. Pamphlets, leaflets, stereopticon lectures, Scripture exhibits, and posters are all available, many of such aids being free.

Your Board respectfully presents the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The American Bible Society is adapting its program of service to meet the changing demands of the day, and renders a unique service in translating, publishing, and distributing the Bible, a ministry of great importance in the life of the churches and indispensable to the whole missionary enterprise, be it resolved:

First: That we express our hearty approval of the activities of the Society in deepening interest in the Bible and in promoting its circulation throughout the world;

Second: That inasmuch as Sunday, December 12, has been designated as Universal Bible Sunday, the ministers and churches represented in this body be urged to take advantage of the co-operation offered by the Society in furnishing assistance, and plan carefully for a worthy observance of the day;

That we regret that the offering of our church has fallen off about two-thirds of the amount given the Society ten years ago, and we recommend that our offering to the Society be increased.

(Signed) E. MYERS, Chairman,
A. BURGESS, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON METHODIST
CO-OPERATION

(FURNISHED AS INFORMATION)

Dear Brethren:

The Commission held its annual meeting in the office of the Editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, with all the participating Conferences represented, but with a rather small attendance due to unavoidable absences on the part of the representatives from the three bodies constituting the Commission.

The Chairman of the Commission, Dr. M. T. Plyler, submitted a historic statement of the origin and purpose of the Commission. On motion of Dr. W. P. Few, the paper was ordered made a part of this report and the basis for any suggestions we may have to make to the Conferences. It is as follows:

"The two Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church at their annual session in 1922 provided for a Joint Commission on Methodist Co-operation in North Carolina. This Joint Commission met in Greensboro, January 18, 1923, and organized by electing Rev. M. T. Plyler, President, and Rev. R. C. Stubbins, Secretary.

"The personnel of the Joint Commission was as follows: Methodist Protestant Church, Rev. T. M. Johnson, Rev. J. D. Williams, Rev. R. C. Stubbins, Mr. R. F. Williams, Mr. J. H. Allen, and Mr. L. F. Ross. Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Rev. J. H. Barnhardt, Rev. J. F. Kirk, and Mr. Fred N. Tate, representing the Western North Carolina Conference, and Rev. M. T. Plyler, Rev. C. B. Culbreth, and Dr. W. P. Few, representing the North Carolina Conference.

"The Commission caused the following address to be sent to the Methodists of North Carolina: 'We are duly mindful of the common origin of our separate Methodisms, which are one in spirit, life and doctrine; and always have been a unit in the effort to spread scriptural holiness over the land. Moreover, the increasing complexity of the social order, with its problems and the readjustments going on about us, admonish us that our Methodist people must gather their forces for a more vigorous church life and unite for a mutual advance. Under the blessings of Heaven, our two Methodist churches must become a still greater force for righteousness and spiritual advance in North Carolina. Every atom of energy must be mobilized against a common foe; less of power and effectiveness, due to unnecessary friction, must cease. What can Methodists do to contribute to this end? We would suggest:

"1. That our preachers and people come to know the efforts and aspirations of each by cultivating more cordial and intimate relations one with the other. Interchange of pulpits and union of efforts in revival campaigns may prove helpful to this end.

"2. That wherever the two churches are working side by side in a community, careful attention and serious thought be given by both churches to see that some way be found to prevent antagonism and waste of energy in doing the work that Methodism as a whole should do. These local issues must be worked out by the good men and women who are on the ground and have been brought to see the sin of depleted strength that ought to be united against the enemies of righteousness.

"3. That due attention be given to co-ordinating undertakings and to readjustments of churches in certain sections where both must continue a useless struggle until the best and wisest will be convinced of the folly of present methods. Why not move to have the Conferences involved in this venture in North Carolina to establish a permanent Board of Mediation?

"4. That we plan and pray that our two Methodisms may this good year of our Lord be one in spirit and aim and effort in doing the work to which we are called in North Carolina.'

"At a second meeting in Greensboro, October 10, of the same year, the Commission recommended to the Conferences that this Joint Commission be continued and authorized to use its best efforts to aid in the work of the two Methodisms. Since we 'favor and long for a united Methodism,' our first concern was to secure closer and more intimate co-operation between the two churches. Expressing our gratitude for the cordial and brotherly relations existing between the members of the great Methodist family, we suggested interchange of pulpits and certain readjustment as soon as possible of our country church work. From the first, fraternal messages have been heard at each of the Conference sessions.

"In 1932 further gratification was expressed over the appointment of the Commission of the three Methodisms looking to the present plan which is now nearing the final action of the Conferences.

"A ten year plan, similar to that which led to the union of English Methodism, was suggested in 1933, but the union movement has gone so much faster than any of us had thought possible a few years ago that a decade was not necessary.

"In connection with the Sesqui-Centennial Celebration of American Methodism, January 6, 1935, the first united conference of the three Methodisms in this state was held in Greensboro, Bishop William F. McDowell, of Washington, being the chief speaker. We have come along these past fifteen years pleased to know each other better as we have moved to the union of American Methodism.

"Would not this Aldersgate year be a favorable time for Methodism to become more nearly one in soul and body by stressing these experiences of early Methodists in all our churches? Allow me to suggest that this Commission take some definite action to report to our Annual Conferences."

As suggested by the paper, the Commission recommends that we give our thought and attention to the celebration of the Aldersgate experience. We are asking that a Committee be set up by each of the participating Annual Conferences to act with their Commission in planning programs and selecting places in which the three Methodisms may come together in the observance of this event which is our common origin. We are naming Thursday, December 2, 1937, at 10:00 a. m., at the office of the Editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, as the time and place for holding the first meeting of the Joint Committee.

We would call attention to our report to the Conferences held last year to the suggestions made therein concerning efforts to bring our three groups into closer fellowship looking to the time when they shall be united into the one new church. (See Western North Carolina Journal, 1936, page 73, and North Carolina Journal, 1936, page 68). A good deal of progress has been made in this direction, a number of the churches putting at least some of the suggestions into practice. To these suggestions we would add that, wherever possible, the pastors and churches of the three groups unite in the holding of District Conferences, under the direction of the presiding elders, the District Superintendents, and the President of the three Methodist bodies.

We are taking the liberty of naming Rev. C. B. Culbreth to represent the Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the session of the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church; and Dr. M. T. Plyler to represent the two Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church.

May the blessing of God and the guidance of His Holy Spirit rest upon the deliberations of the Conferences as they meet in their sessions this fall.

(Signed) M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
C. W. BATES, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF MANAGERS OF NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL

The Pastors' School last June co-operated with the Country Church Institute and the Institute of International Relations, running simultaneously at Duke University. The interchange of privileges was greatly appreciated by the many in attendance.

The management has under consideration a session of one week instead of two weeks for the school next year immediately following the Duke commencement. It is thought such an arrangement would make possible facilities for larger numbers and allow more concentration on the program for 1938. Definite arrangements as to this will be made at an early date.

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMISSION ON WESLEY FOUNDATION OF COLLEGE PLACE AND CHAPEL HILL CHURCHES

The Commission has given careful attention to the work of our churches at Chapel Hill and College Place, Greensboro. The more than 1,400 Methodist students of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, are our special concern.

In helping these choice young spirits we not only help them as individuals, but they also go back into the communities and churches from whence they come to do the service of the Master.

We include the following statements as to the work in hand:

STUDENT WORK AT CHAPEL HILL CHURCH

The University Methodist Church at Chapel Hill has the task of serving the religious needs of more than 700 young men and women who are students in the University. To comprehend the magnitude of the church's task one need only to be reminded that more than 200 Methodist freshmen are enrolled in the University this year. The religious problems and needs attendant upon this time of transition from home to college are manifold and acute.

Through its student work the University Church attempts to anticipate and meet these needs and to solve these problems, using various channels of influence. The Sunday services, a morning class, the worship service, and a forum, all are centered around the student and seek his spiritual orientation. As far as is practical, the conduct of student activities is in the hands of the students themselves, with policies being adopted, programs outlined, and plans made by leaders-in-training. The Sunday schedule is supported by various activities during the week. Social gatherings, recreational outings, deputations, and intimate discussion groups are among the regular features of the student program. In order to maintain close contact with all Methodist students in dormitories there is in each dormitory a leader with his floor assistants. Tying all of this together are the visitation of the pastor in the students' rooms and a program of personal counseling.

The University Church strives to help the students to maintain an attitude that is progressive, balanced, and above all, deeply spiritual.

COLLEGE PLACE CHURCH, GREENSBORO

There are 1,886 students enrolled at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, to date. Of these, 657, or more than one-third, are Methodists, and 310 have joined the Wesley Foundation organization and become affiliate members of College Place Methodist Church. Some who cannot attend the Wesley Foundation meetings join the local congregation in worship in one form or another at College Place Church each Sunday, approximately 400 in all. The Wesley Foundation, under the leadership of Miss Idalene Gulledge, who for the past eight years has rendered excellent service, and Miss Marjorie Pouder, the newly employed Director, has made marked advancement. It has a larger enrollment this year than ever before in its history and is rendering a service to girls from every section of our state and from practically every state east of the Mississippi River.

The student organization and the membership of the local congregation have steadily grown until there is now an enrollment of 1,302 in the church school. They are greatly handicapped because of lack of space and equipment.

In order to carry on the work so well begun among our young people at Chapel Hill and College Place Church, Greensboro, the Joint Commission asks the two North Carolina Conferences for the following amounts:

Chapel Hill:

1. Salary of full-time student worker	$1,000.00
2. Operating expenses	1,650.00
3. Total	2,650.00
4. Less grant by General Board	350.00
5. Balance	2,300.00

College Place:

1. Salary of full-time student worker	$1,700.00
2. Operating expenses	200.00
3. Total	1,900.00
4. Less grant by General Board	600.00
5. Balance	1,300.00
Total askings	$3,600.00
Each Annual Conference	1,800.00

To meet the askings made of the Western North Carolina Conference this request goes to the Commission on Budget of the Conferences to make an appropriation sufficient to care for the request of each Annual Conference.

Your Inter-Conference Commission, in order to prevent confusion in handling the funds, requests that the Treasurer of each Annual Conference be instructed to remit all money directly to the Treasurer of this Commission, J. M. Culbreth, who in turn will distribute the funds to the beneficiaries at Chapel Hill and College Place. Treasurer Culbreth is in turn to submit an annual report to each Conference.

The debt situation and inadequate plant at College Place were carefully considered by the Commission and on motion of Bishop Kern it was voted to request the two Conferences to appoint a Committee to study the situation at College Place and to lead in a movement to provide for a suitable plant there. The Bishop named for the Western North Carolina Conference the following: W. A. Lambeth, Winston-Salem; L. B. Abernethy, Elkin; P. J. Kiker, Wadesboro; G. B. Howard, Spindale; and Ben L. Smith, Greensboro, and asks that they be confirmed.

MEMORIALS TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

Your Committee on Memorials to the General Conference has received the following memorials, duly signed by members of the Conference:

- I—Social and Economic Security (Concurrence).
- II—Equalization of Presiding Elders' Salaries (Concurrence).
- III—Financial Systems (Concurrence).

(Signed) A. W. PLYLER, Chairman,
A. C. GIBBS, Secretary.

MEMORIALS

I—SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC SECURITY (CONCURRENCE)

Whereas, the matter of social and economic security for the aged and unemployed has become the settled policy of our Federal and many of our state governments, and,

Whereas, ministers of the gospel are expressly excluded from sharing in the protection promised other classes, through unemployment insurance and social security legislation, and,

Whereas, while it has long been the accepted policy of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to provide financial assistance for superannuated and disabled preachers, nevertheless, an adequate protection is yet far from realization, and,

Whereas, we now happily anticipate the merging of the various branches of Methodism into one great American body, and,

Whereas, the united Methodist Church will employ between fifteen and twenty thousand full-time pastors:

The Western North Carolina Conference now in session at Asheville, N. C., therefore most respectfully and earnestly requests the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at its next session in April, 1938, to create a commission to make a careful study and thorough investigation of the question of making adequate provision for the retired and disabled members of the several Annual Conferences of the united church, including the practicability of providing also for death benefits to the families of deceased ministers, and any other questions pertaining to the matter of securing a comprehensive and church-wide plan of insurance for every minister in the united church.

The findings of said Commission to be presented to the first session of the General Conference of the united church.

The expense of said Commission to be paid by the Publishing House.

We respectfully ask the North Carolina Conference at its session in Raleigh, November 17, 1937, to concur in this memorial.

II—EQUALIZATION OF PRESIDING ELDERS' SALARIES (CONCURRENCE)

(Section 2, After Paragraph 264, Inset:
All other paragraphs and sections to conform).

Should an Annual Conference elect to equalize the salaries of the presiding elders, the Conference Commission on Budget shall make a special asking of the Conference of the total amount deemed adequate for that purpose, and shall apportion it among the Districts upon the same basis as the askings for General and Conference work.

In such case, this arrangement shall supercede the arrangement whereby the salaries of the presiding elders are estimated by the District Stewards;

Provided, that the District Stewards shall apportion the total amount asked of the District by the Conference Commission on Budget for the presiding elders to the several pastoral charges upon the same basis as that upon which they apportion the askings for General and Conference work.

In such case, also, the presiding elders shall collect the amount to be applied to them at each Quarterly Conference, and shall forward the same to the Conference Treasurer to be distributed by him to all the presiding elders of the Conference, share and share alike; such distribution to be made at least once a month.

Respectfully submitted as a memorial to the next General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

(Signed) M. T. SMATHERS,
T. R. WOLFE,
J. W. WILLIAMS.

III—FINANCIAL SYSTEMS (CONCURRENCE)

1. That all Conference Treasurers shall make a statement of receipts and disbursements on the first day of each month, and send a copy to the Bishop in charge and officers of the Budget Commission and also have bank or banks certify balance to the Chairman of the Budget Commission.

2. That the legislation of the General Conference of 1934 as to publishing individual reports of churches on circuits be re-enacted and provide practical methods for its operation including a thorough study of statistical items and economy in printing cost.

3. That a Committee be appointed to make a thorough study of forms, methods, and policies of Annual Conference Treasurers with a view to making the best experience available to all and establishing uniformity in practice so far as feasible.

4. That more usable and economical forms and materials be provided for church Treasurer and Boards of Stewards, adapted for the use of churches of various size of membership, but with special reference to the country church.

5. That some means be provided for bringing our whole fiscal system, including the above items, into greater harmony, simplicity and effectiveness.

MINUTES OF CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The annual meeting of the Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Conference was held in Central Methodist Church, Asheville, at 3:00 p. m., Thursday, October 21, 1937. Dr. A. W. Plyler presided.

The opening devotional service was begun with the congregational singing of Hymn 256, "Faith of Our Fathers." Prayer was offered by Rev. R. G. Tuttle.

The minutes of the previous year's session were read and approved (see Conference Minutes, 1936, page 81.) The Society instructed the Chairman to appoint a Committee on nominations of officers for the coming year. The Committee appointed consisted of W. A. Jenkins, Ebenezer Myers, and W. L. Sherrill. After consultation this Committee reported nominations as follows: for President, Dr. W. A. Lambeth; for Vice-President, Rev. W. A. Jenkins; for Secretary-Treasurer, Rev. Wilbur G. McFarland; for membership on Executive Committee, Rev. C. M. Pickens to succeed himself. The report was adopted by the Society, and the above-named were declared elected.

A most interesting address was presented by Dr. Paul N. Garber, President of the Society, at this session, on the subject, "John Carlisle Kilgo as a Christian Educator."

An offering amounting to $11.63 was taken and paid the Advocate Publishing Company, of Greensboro, on account for printing.

Rev. W. L. Sherrill made a timely exhortation, asking that each pastor assume the responsibility of being historian of his charge, collecting and recording information from old people, records, etc., and taking precautions for the preservation of old records.

The benediction was given by Rev. W. L. Sherrill, for the past forty-four years Secretary of the Western North Carolina Conference, and during all this time a promoter of the work and an official of the Historical Society.

(Signed) PAUL N. GARBER, President,
WILBUR G. MCFARLAND, Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood met in twenty-ninth annual session in Central Methodist Church, Asheville, N. C., October 21, 1937, at 4:00 p. m., with the President, H. G. Allen, in the chair. The hymn, "How Firm a Foundation," was sung, and the meeting was led in prayer. By unanimous consent the reading of the minutes of the last annual meeting was dispensed with. The minutes of the Executive Committee meeting, held on September 14, 1937, were read. As nominated by the Executive Committee, Mr. S. G. Hawfield was confirmed as Conference Lay Director for the Brotherhood.

The amendment, proposed by Rev. J. W. Moore a year ago, was discussed at length. On motion, the action of the Executive Committee in recommending that the Moore amendment be not adopted, was approved by the Brotherhood.

The Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, C. C. Herbert, Jr., made the following report: Five members of the Brotherhood have died during the past year: Brothers S. S. Higgins, A. J. Burrus, A. D. Wilcox, E. E. Williamson, and J. A. J. Farrington. Paid to date on these calls: To Mrs. S. S. Higgins, $1,000; to each of the other beneficiaries, $800. Amount on hand, October 19, 1937, $724. It is confidently expected that the amount paid in during the session of Conference will be more than ample to pay each of the beneficiaries the remainder of the $1,200, and leave a comfortable balance in the treasury.

The Nominating Committee, consisting of S. M. Needham, J. W. Moore, J. L. Ingram, and J. S. Hiatt made the following nominations: For President, H. G. Allen; for Vice-President, R. C. Goforth; for Secretary and Treasurer, C. C. Herbert, Jr.; for Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, F. C. Smathers.

On motion of J. W. Moore, the following amendment to the Constitution was proposed, to be voted on a year hence, unless the laymen's plans for helping the superannuates are successful: "That the Brotherhood grant to the superannuates who may need the courtesy the privilege of paying their assessments by note instead of by check."

The new Lay Director, S. G. Hawfield, was introduced and he introduced to the Brotherhood the District Lay Directors. Names of preachers who are not members were distributed for solicitation.

On motion, the Brotherhood voted its grateful thanks and appreciation to Rev. C. M. Pickens, as he retires at his own wish from office, for the years of splendid service he has rendered to the organization.

The meeting adjourned with the singing of "Blest Be the Tie."

(Signed) H. G. ALLEN, President,
C. C. HERBERT, JR., Secretary-Treasurer.

BISHOP EDWIN DuBOSE MOUZON

Since our last Conference session, Bishop Mouzon, our senior Bishop, a mighty man and a Prince in Israel, has passed to his eternal reward. The summons came without warning, when he seemed to be vigorous with promise of many more years of useful service.

For some weeks prior he had strenuously labored in the Bishops' Crusade and had just returned from a campaign in Georgia and Florida, full of enthusiasm on account of the generous response of the people to the important movement. As he was talking about the wonderful results of the event, to some friends in his home on the evening of February 10th, last, in the middle of a sentence his voice faltered, his heart failed and the sad news of his death was flashed, bringing sorrow to a very wide circle of friends.

He was born in Spartanburg, S. C., May 19, 1869, son of Samuel C. and Harriet P. Mouzon. In early life he was soundly converted and joined the Methodist Church. It was his good fortune to come under the influence of the great teacher, Dr. James H. Carlisle, at Wofford College, where he graduated with the A.B. degree in 1889.

He was then licensed to preach and admitted into the Texas Conference in 1890 and served as pastor at Austin, Caldwell, Galveston, Abilene, Fort Worth and Travis Park, San Antonio, Texas, and Kansas City, Missouri. From 1908 to 1910 he served as Professor of Theology in Southwestern University and in May, 1910, at Asheville, N. C., was elected Bishop, which office he filled with distinction until his death, February 10, 1937.

The Southwestern University conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1905 and later the degree of Doctor of Laws. In 1925 the latter honorary degree came to him from both Southern Methodist University and Duke University. He was a leader in the movement to establish Southern Methodist University at Dallas, Texas.

To him, probably more than to any other man, should credit be given for the movement now in process of fulfillment for the unification of American Methodism.

He was the author of many books and among them were: "Does God Care?"; "Fundamentals of Methodism"; "The Program of Jesus" (Cole Lectures, 1925); "The Missionary Evangelist" (Fondren Lectures, 1925); and "Preaching With Authority" (Yale Lectures, 1929).

His first marriage was to Mary Elizabeth Mike, of Bryan, Texas, on his twenty-first birthday, May 19, 1890. She died November 10, 1917. The children were: Mrs. C. H. Thomas, Mrs. J. R. Spann, Edwin D., Jr, Mrs. J. D. Peurifoy, and James Carlisle.

His second marriage was to Mrs. Mary Paul Langdon, of Dallas, Texas, August 21, 1919, who still survives.

For eight years (1926-1934) he was in charge of the Episcopal area covering the states of North and South Carolina and a resident of Charlotte for twelve years until his death.

After a funeral service held in First Church, Charlotte, in which several ministers took part, a beautiful tribute was paid to the sainted Bishop by Dr. W. W. Peele, after which the body was taken to Dallas, Texas, for burial.

Bishop Mouzon was great in many respects. He was a magnificent physical specimen, a man among men, distinguished in appearance and in bearing and attracted attention in any company. He was great in intellect, with a mind richly stored with varied knowledge; great as a citizen and patriot, with moral convictions and courage to stand fearlessly for what he thought was right.

He was great as an orator. No one who heard him deliver the masterful address in the Charlotte Auditorium in favor of the 18th Amendment in 1933 will ever forget how his overwhelming appeal so moved the great audience that it, as a mass, arose and cheered for eight minutes before the speaker could continue with his address.

Two years ago, in First Church, Charlotte, he preached a sermon of extraordinary force, full of thought and fervor which deeply impressed the congregation. In the audience was a distinguished jurist of another communion who, when I met him on the street next day, spoke in highest praise of the sermon and the preacher who he said was one of the very great preachers in America, which means that he was one of the great preachers of Christendom.

He was a great administrative officer and ecclesiastical statesman. I knew him well. He was my friend and I held him in most affectionate regard. He was a great Christian with a generous heart full of love for God and man.

Strangers sometimes thought he was distant and difficult to approach, "but as we find the pearl beneath the billows of the ocean and the nugget of gold in the depth of the mountain, there was in his breast that priceless jewel, the golden heart."

He was a great friend and constant in his friendship.

He was a devoted husband and his family life was beautiful.

Since he has gone we feel lonely without him, but we shall see him again when the veil is lifted.

WILLIAM L. SHERRILL.

A. J. BURRUS

If, after the passing of nine hundred years, the spirit of Elijah should live again in the person of John the Baptist, would it be unreasonable to believe that Jeremiah should come to us in the spiritual ministry of Rev. A. J. Burrus? Their spiritual characters, their messages and methods, were strikingly similar. Long before this writer knew anything of the historical background of Jeremiah, or could interpret his prophecies in terms of spiritual objectives, he heard Rev. A. J. Burrus praying tenderly for the "daughters of my people," pleading for the "balm of Gilead" and agonizing because the harvest was passed, the summer ended and my people are not saved." These are the souls that know the "burden of the Lord" and of whom F. W. D. Myer writes when he says:

"Then with a thrill the intolerable craving
Shivers through me like a trumpet call.
Oh, to save these, to perish for their saving,
Die for their life, He offered for them all."

He excelled in prayer. To change the will of God never seemed to be the purpose of his prayers, but he did seek to release the power of God by them, and in this he was eminently successful. It was a benediction to any soul to hear him pray. He made habitual reference to both Father and Son as "Blessed Lord." The intonations of that expression on Sunday morning revealed the experiences of the previous week. If God's goodness had been abundant his "Blessed Lord" had a joyous ring; if his mind had dwelt upon the needs of his flock his "blessed Lord" had within it a piteous plea; if he had been called to pass under the rod, submissively and without whimpering, it was still "Blessed Lord." I knelt by his bedside a few days before his triumph and uttered there a little prayer. I asked that he might meet his Pilot face to face when he had crossed the bar. "Yes, blessed Lord," was his feeble response. And methinks when the gates swung open for his entrance and he beheld the King in His beauty he exclaimed: "My blessed Lord."

Prof. Z. H. Dixon, who knew him for a long period of time, says of him: "He possessed in a high degree the old fashioned virtues of honesty, integrity, fidelity, and piety and yet with such simplicity and meekness that it was a joy to be associated with him in his work for humanity. It was of some such village preacher of whom Goldsmith wrote:

"To them his heart, his love, his griefs were given.
But all his serious thought had rest in Heaven,
As some tall cliff that lifts its awful form,
Swells from the vale and midway leaves the storm,
Though round its breast the rolling clouds are spread
Eternal sunshine settles on its head."

He was born June 25, 1860, at Rockford in Surry County. He received his education in the public schools of his day and in a private school taught by Prof. T. S. Whittington at East Bend, N. C. He taught in the public schools of Surry County and later conducted a private school in Yadkin County. During this period of teaching he was a class leader and a licensed exhorter. In 1883 he was granted license to preach and in 1887 he was ordained local deacon by Bishop Key in Fayetteville, N. C. For a brief period he was supply pastor of the Lewisville Circuit. In 1891 at Central Church, Asheville, he was ordained local elder by Bishop Galloway and admitted on trial. He served the Conference for 36 years on the following charges: Lewisville Circuit, 1891-92; Watauga Circuit, 1893-96; Jefferson Circuit, 1897-98; Yadkinville Circuit, 1899-1902; Troutman Circuit, 1903-06; Unionville Circuit, 1907-10; Davie Circuit, 1911-12; Wentworth Circuit, 1913-14; Shelby Circuit, 1915-17; Morganton Circuit, 1918; Cliffside-Avondale, 1919-21; Weaverville Circuit, 1922-25; Sandy Mush Circuit, 1926. He left behind him a record of worthy achievement in each of these charges. He built a great many country churches, held a great many revivals resulting in numerous additions to the church. As a direct result of his influence Revs. A. L. Stanford, J. W. Long, W. A. Rollins, C. W. Kirby and the writer were brought into membership in the Western North Carolina Conference. Dr. Plato T. Durham confided to some of his most intimate friends that the hand of Jack Burrus led him in his spiritual pilgrimage from an intellectualism to a spiritual ministry.

On December 28, 1890, he was married to Martha Jane Mosely of Surry County, and no finer spirit was ever linked to a Methodist circuit rider. God, comfort her and let them meet again in Heaven!

Their home was blessed with six children—three boys and three girls. They found loving arms to receive them and a home in which there was deep parental concern for their well being. Although his average salary was little more than $700, he and his wife managed to give these six children a college education, and he lived to see each of them at work in some worthy task and each reflecting the honor and integrity of a saintly father and mother.

After his superannuation in 1926 he moved to Rutherford College. On March 5, 1937, after six months in the Richard Baker Hospital seeking to regain healing for a broken hip, without avail, he was admitted into full connection in the Conference on High. His pastor, Rev. J. P. Morris, Prof. M. T. Hinshaw, Dr. P. W. Tucker, Dr. S. B. Turrentine and the writer conducted his funeral in his home church. His body was laid to rest in the Oakwood Cemetery in Hickory, N. C. In this hour of loving mercy we say:

Adieu, Uncle Jack, and take thy praise with thee to Heaven.

W. L. HUTCHINS.

J. A. J. FARRINGTON

In the recurring decades God oftentimes reveals to us in living personality the meaning of truth expressed in Holy Writ. He says He will ordain strength out of the mouths of babes and sucklings. He promises that a handful of corn planted on the barren mountain tops of Judea shall shake like the cedars of Lebanon when the wind passes over it. These truths cannot be fully understood until the All-wise Father points to some individual and says: There is a living illustration of My truth. God not only used the clean lips of Rev. J. A. J. Farrington to preach His gospel but He used his life and ministry to demonstrate that strength can come out of weakness and that tall corn can grow on barren soil.

Like America's foremost emancipator, scores of others whose names grace history's pages, and even the peasant Teacher of Galilee Himself, he began life in an environment that would have defeated a youth of mediocre mold. But he had a vision, a determination and a tenacity of soul that brooked no compromise with low levels and with things half done. His first opportunity for an education was given him in the Sunday school at old Center Church in Guilford County. There he learned the alphabet and the simple sentences of the primers of those days. When seven years old his mother was promoted and crowned. Shortly thereafter he made his home with his eldest sister, Mrs. Rayle, who did her best to perform the role of mother. She made it possible for him to enter the public schools of those days. The surviving school mates bear testimony to the fact that his mind was eager for knowledge and that he was studious and anxious to learn. In his early teens he became what was known in those days as a "bound boy" to the sheriff of Guilford County. He loved him for his dutifulness and saw in him elements of worthwhile character. He sent him to a preparatory school in High Point from which he graduated. He then entered Weaver College and graduated from that school in 1897. In 1899 he joined the Western North Carolina Conference and gave thirty-six years of faithful and efficient service to the Church of our Lord.

He will be remembered by us as a man who loved the beautiful and who worshipped at its shrine. He held communion with the visible forms of nature and to him she spake a various language. He loved the flowers and found delight in their presence. Furthermore, he sought to express the truths of the gospel in beautiful language. At times he rose to the purest eloquence, to most effective oratory. To him the sun did something other than set. He "wrapped himself in a mantle of gold and lay down to sleep in a cradle of glory." The stars not only shone for him but they sang to him as to another: "The hand that made us is divine." Christ was the Rose of Sharon, the bright and morning Star and the One altogether lovely.

Nor did he fail to see beauty in the souls of men. Every man he met was a potential saint. O'er crag and torrent he pointed to the summit and then offered a brother's hand to every man who would seek to climb.

The day following his entrance into membership in the Conference he was married to Carrie Vanstory, who survives. She was a true soul-mate and with feminine grace and dignity ruled their parsonage life. The Lord blessed their home with four children, three boys and a girl. With sacrifice and joy they sent each to college and lived to see each graduated and established in some professional career. I can think of no finer setting for a great painting than the one I saw in Thomasville when Farrington and his wife came to visit their son who had just begun his professional career in that city. This Methodist preacher and his faithful wife stood in the street scanning a second story window for a name. The father saw it first. Then that tall form bent above his wife, his right arm encircling her waist, the left pointing to a pane of glass which bore the name: Dr. R. K. Farrington. "Look yonder, Mother!" he exclaimed. Mrs. Farrington told me later that he whispered to her: "Now let thy servant depart for I have seen the salvation of the Lord." This picture would be incomplete without reference to the fact that when the time of superannuation came his children had a comfortable home provided for their preacher-father, into which he entered and from which he arose 18 months later to greet the fulgent dawn.

He knew that he belonged neither to time nor place and requested that neither be referred to in his memoir.

From Main Street Methodist Church Drs. C. M. Pickens, W. A. Lambeth, J. H. Armbrust and the writer conducted his funeral. The cemetery at Thomasville, N. C., holds the mortal remains of this dear brother.

Goodby, thou lover of music, we shall see thee next in the choir of Heaven.

W. L. HUTCHINS.

SILVESTER STARR HIGGINS

Silvester Starr Higgins, son of Edward B. and Sarah Stafford Higgins, was born in Guilford County, North Carolina, November 8, 1867, and died November 24, 1936, in the Ridgefield community near Guilford College, where he had lived most of his life.

He received his education from the Ridgefield community school, Oak Ridge Institute, graded schools of Greensboro and the New Garden Boarding School, now Guilford College. He also attended several short term courses at North Carolina State College, Raleigh.

For some years before and after his active ministry he was engaged in dairy farming northwest of Guilford College.

He was licensed to preach in August, 1900, at Lewisville in the Winston-Salem District. For the next four years he did local work and held revival meetings during the summer.

In 1905 he was ordained a local deacon by Bishop A. W. Wilson in Greensboro; in 1911 he was ordained an elder by Bishop E. E. Hoss in Statesville.

Brother Higgins joined the Western North Carolina Conference in 1906 at Mt. Airy. He served the following charges: West Lexington, 1905-06, supply; West Lexington and Denton, 1906-07; Bethel Circuit, 1907-09; Bethel and Big Lick, 1909-10; Woodleaf, 1910-12; Cottonville, 1912-13.

At the Annual Conference in 1913 he was given the superannuate relation. He was not totally disabled at that time but there was some question as to his being able to hold up throughout the year.

While on the Bethel Circuit he was married, December 18, 1907, to Miss Beaulah Burns Lillard (Jefferes) of Mount Carmel Church, Reidsville Circuit, Rockingham County, N. C.

Through the years she was faithful to help him while on the field of service for the kingdom of God. Then, day and night, she answered his calls for help that his paining limbs and aching body might be given temporary relief.

In this union was known suffering, also a home in which God's word was read day after day, and the prayer at evening, to Him who watches and knows all things best for His children.

To this union were born five children: James Silvester, Charlie Burns, Sarah Elizabeth, Sidney Starr, and Edward Burr. He is survived by his wife, his children, one granddaughter, Sarah Helen Morris, one brother, Charlie B. Higgins, and several nieces and nephews.

S. Starr Higgins was active most of his life, although suffering with rheumatism for forty-six years. He finally became an invalid in February, 1924, and remained so until his death.

While he suffered, he kept himself well informed through general and religious reading. He had little to say about himself, even to the members of his family. He had no sympathy story to tell about himself but was always interested in others. He was always searching for new facts about life. As he gathered facts, more and more he talked to his friends about the changing conditions that made it necessary for man to give and take, and love the more excellent way of life. He voiced his opinion whether it pleased or displeased those who listened. The people of the community could depend on our brother taking a firm stand for the right as he saw it. He practised the rule that the truth will always triumph in the end. The words of praise came not from his lips to make life other than what it was. But with a strong determination to live, he battled on in the fight, never laying aside the armor of righteousness and ever saying man's supreme aim was to glorify his Father in heaven.

While on the pilgrimage of life he found that with the Apostle Paul the temporal and seen things pass away, but through another channel there was made known the unseen.

The life of our brother came to its earthly end on the morning of November 24, quietly as one who goes to a natural sleep. On Thanksgiving day the funeral services were conducted from Pleasant Ridge Church by Rev. G. W. Vick, Dr. W. W. Peele, and Dr. W. A. Stanbury.

"For our light affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory."

J. SILVESTER HIGGINS.

WILLIAM HORNBUCKLE

William Hornbuckle, the son of James and Rebecca Hornbuckle, was born in Jackson County, North Carolina, December 25, 1880, and triumphantly passed to his eternal reward March 6, 1937.

After attending the Indian School at Cherokee, he entered Carlisle University where he did very commendable work, both as an excellent scholar and outstanding athlete.

Converted in early manhood he felt a definite call to preach and was given a local preacher's license in 1922. In 1926 he was admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference, M. E. Church, South, at a session of said Conference held in Gastonia, North Carolina, in the year 1926. He was then appointed junior pastor of the Whittier Charge, which position he graciously filled for ten years. Due to extremely ill health he superannuated at the last Annual Conference which was held in Salisbury.

The above are merely a few bare facts with reference to the life of Brother Hornbuckle. Let us consider somewhat briefly the man. He was pre-eminently a preacher. In the delivery of his messages he was noted for his simplicity and clearness. Yet underneath this simplicity there were to be discovered unprobed depths of meaning and profound spiritual understanding. Considered from any angle Brother Hornbuckle was the perfect example of the Christian minister. He possessed a faith in God which knew no bounds. His simple trust in the Father of us all was something that caused one to marvel. Perhaps no better example of what the Grace of Christ can do for a man could ever be found than William Hornbuckle. It was ever his delight to visit, pray with, and encourage the sick. Many are those who could give a ringing "Amen" to the above statement.

His love for his people was a joy to behold. Ever did he toil among them, seeking to lead them into the knowledge and joys of that life which is the portion of those who "walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit." Insincerity, covetousness, place-seeking and unbrotherliness were alien terms to this good man. But rather he might have been characterized by such terms as love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, meekness, and faith.

His last days were filled with intense bodily pain but amidst it all his faith in his Lord only grew brighter 'til the sixth day of March, 1937, the Lord called his name and with triumphant shout, "I'm on my way to the New Jerusalem," he passed away.

Whereunto shall we finally liken him? Turn to Bunyan's great allegory and see "Mr. Stand-Fast." There walks William Hornbuckle, and how true to the close of his life is that touching passage which is headed, "Mr. Stand-Fast Crosses the River." Then there came forth a summons for Mr. Stand-Fast. . . . When he had set things in order, he also went down to the river. Now there was a great calm at that time in the river; wherefore Mr. Stand-Fast said: I see myself now at the end of my journey, my toilsome days are ended. I am going now to see that head that was crowned with thorns and that face that was spit upon for me. . . . Now while he was thus in discourse, his countenance changed, his strong man bowed under him; and after he had said, "Take me, for I come to Thee," he ceased to be seen of them.

Brother Hornbuckle was buried in the family cemetery among his people who loved him much. The funeral was conducted by Revs. W. A. Rollins and McRae Crawford, assisted by Rev. Arzene Thompson and Rev. Mr. Fitzgerald of Cherokee.

He leaves a wife, Mrs. Annie Oocumma Hornbuckle; a brother, Israel Hornbuckle; and one sister.

McRAE CRAWFORD.

ELGIN EUGENE WILLIAMSON

After nearly thirty-three years in the ministry, Brother E. E. Williamson quietly slipped away on Friday, May 28, of this year. He was seventy years of age, having been born February 14, 1867, in Penola County, Mississippi. He had superannuated at the session of the Annual Conference in 1936. At the time of his death he was a patient in the government hospital at Bay Pines, Florida. His wife, who previous to her marriage was Miss Maude Carmichael of Winston-Salem, N. C., and one daughter, Alice, along with one brother, J. D. Williamson of Charlotte, and one sister, Mrs. A. W. Taylor of Richmond, Virginia, survive.

Prior to his entrance in the Conference, during the Spanish-American War, Brother Williamson served as a corporal in Company M, First North Carolina Volunteer Infantry. He enlisted at Raleigh, N. C., April 27, 1898, and was mustered out April 22, 1899, at Savannah, Georgia. He had been a member of Chase Adams Camp No. 1 since February 20, 1930. His comrades held him in high esteem. At the time of his death he was serving as chaplain of his camp.

Following his undergraduate work at Wofford College, Brother Williamson entered Vanderbilt University, from which institution he received his B.D. degree. He made many friends in college and university, numbers of whom, having survived him, testify gratefully to his geniality and friendly qualities. These same personal characteristics were cultivated during the years of his ministry. The many letters which have been written to the one who gave her life to the church, in comradeship with him, bear testimony to the esteem and affection in which he was held by hosts, whom it was his privilege to serve in various churches. They indicate, too, his love for the people he served. Indeed, these communications do not merely constitute a friendly tribute to Brother Williamson, they are also a high kind of personal evaluation of the good the man did.

Brother Williamson was especially interested in teen-age boys and girls. He gave them happily of his time, and his fellowship with them was another indication of his wise judgment in investing in growing personalities. He was known for his sympathetic feeling, and responded to the calls for help of all kinds that were made to him. He gave materially—even when he needed it for himself. And he always gave spiritually and generously to those whose conditions challenged him.

Brother Williamson gave himself devotedly to his work. This characteristic was noted with keen appreciation by the Rev. Phillip B. Trigg, chaplain of the hospital at Bay Pines. Mr. Trigg recently wrote: "While he was here in our Veterans hospital for treatment, I first met Brother Williamson. We grew to be warm personal friends. . . . He made friends and was loved by every one here who knew him. He was a great help and inspiration to me in my services. . . . On Sunday, May 16, Brother Williamson rendered his last service on earth as he assisted me in the administration of the Holy Sacrament, at the chapel service. . . . It was my joy, but one touched with a feeling of great personal loss, to know that I was the last to hear his voice on earth. He said, 'My time has come. Tell my loved ones all is well!'"

The presence of a number of his fellow ministers at the funeral services and the numerous expressions of sympathy and concern from his fellow-workers in the Kingdom constitute a real testimonial of their appreciation of the man. The last services were conducted at Centenary Church, Winston-Salem, by the Rev. W. B. Davis, Dr. W. A. Lambeth and the writer.

It is manifestly impossible to evaluate thirty-two years of active ministry in a few brief paragraphs. The contribution of time which one makes over a course of years like that is, as a matter of fact, probably the smallest factor in one's service. It would, indeed, take a keen Christian imagination accurately and fairly to measure a term of Christian service of nearly a generation.

The memory of Eugene Williamson's deeds of thoughtful kindness, and the happy recollection of these years of his ministry belong to those treasures which moths cannot destroy. Indeed, they are where thieves cannot break through nor steal—in the minds of those who knew and loved him, and in the hearts of those who gave their lives to the church and Christianity, along with him.

G. RAY JORDAN.

We do not feel that we are asking too much in urging our pastors, churches, schools and all connectional interests to order all their printing from the Advocate.

We are equipped to handle anything from a visiting card to a book as economically and expeditiously as any printshop in the state.

Some of our city's most prominent business institutions are among our best customers; but it is to the great North Carolina Methodist family that the Advocate looks expectantly for its principal patronage.

PRACTICAL BOOKS ON THE PRACTICAL WORK OF THE MINISTRY

THE MINISTER HIS WORLD AND HIS WORK

William Adams Brown

Beginning with "The World in Which the Minister Must Do His Work," Dr. Brown examines "The Scientist's Substitute for God—Nature" and "The Humanist's Substitute for God—Man." Exceedingly practical is the study of the problems which Protestant ministers must face today in the spiritual, social, economic, and cultural leadership of their people. "There is a longing in the hearts of most ministers today for helpful counsel in rethinking what religion and the Church have to offer to a confused and troubled world. Dr. Brown's book will fire the soul of every minister who reads it with a new passion for consecrated leadership." Monday Morning $2.00

THE ART OF ILLUSTRATING SERMONS

Dawson C. Bryan

This is a book which explains how to use illustrations to make sermons come alive. "Mr. Bryan has such a remarkable instinct for the thing that is alive, such a high standard both for beauty and significance, such an impressive range of reading, that he has undoubtedly assembled, as data to enforce his principles, the richest collection of sermonic illustrations ever made. He uses his illustrations as concrete data for the purpose of helping the preacher to do original thinking, to show him how to observe life, how to keep the mind awake to the passing pageant of humanity, how to bring the harvest of the eye to the service of enforcing spiritual truth. The book is rightly named—it is not a storehouse of materials, it is the study of an art. He gives a profusion of principles, for learning to preach in vivid picturesque terms, a body of suggestions which will be of great help in the never ending task of learning to preach."—Halford E. Luccock. $2.00

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF RELIGIOUS LIVING

Karl R. Stolz

Part I of this book explores the "Backgrounds of the Religious Quest," discussing the nature and origins of religion. Part II concerns "Religious Experience and Personality," building a vital discussion upon the author's thorough knowledge of current schools of psychology. "If one is seeking a manual which combines an account of the historical origins of religion with some of the main present-day movements, and offers applied philosophy and theology as well as applied psychology, he will find an instructive guide here."—Journal of Bible and Religion. The work is based upon specialized study and clinical experience. $2.50

THE COKEBURY FUNERAL MANUAL

Wm. H. Leach

The editor of the Church Management has collected here 224 pages of material for the burial services of children, youth, adults, and the aged. The book gives also the historic funeral liturgies of Protestantism; hymns, poems, and prose that afford consolation to the bereaved; well-selected prayers and texts; and an excellent group of funeral sermon outlines. It is bound in black limp morocco binding, with round corners, red edges, and silk marker; it makes a dignified and helpful handbook for the minister who conducts the funeral. $1.00

THE ESSENTIALS OF AN EFFECTIVE MINISTRY

Bishop H. A. Boaz

This series of intimate and inspiring addresses is based on the wide experience of a preacher, educator, and bishop. Every page of this book sheds light upon the quality of the work of the minister or the technique of his profession. "The addresses are Christ-centered and Bible-based."—Lutheran Herald. "The sincere preacher who desires to be prepared to do a finer piece of work in pulpit and parish will do well to read, digest, and assimilate the work of this author."—Christian Recorder. "The book not only contains good advice to younger men, but it will have a tonic effect upon the more experienced men who find their energies flagging."—Christian Century. $1.00

FOURTH DAY—SUNDAY

October 23, 1938.

Memorial Service: At 3:00 p. m., at Dilworth Methodist Church, the Conference convened in memorial session, with L. B. Hayes presiding. The prayer was led by C. S. Kirkpatrick. Minute Question 14, "What preachers have died this year?" was called, and the following answer was given: J. J. Edwards, J. M. Folger, B. F. Hargett, R. D. Sherrill, E. P. Stabler, C. E. Stedman, and J. W. Williams. Their memoirs were given by T. B. Johnson, W. J. Miller, L. B. Hayes, L. D. Thompson, J. O. Ervin, W. A. Barber, and C. S. Kirkpatrick, respectively. L. F. Tuttle read the memoir of W. R. Odell. The memorial address was delivered by R. L. Ownbey. The address follows:

One is both honored and humbled in the sacred privilege of speaking to one's living brethren in memory of those comrades of the itinerancy who have answered their final roll call here, and have gone on to enjoy promotion to larger fields of service in the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. One is honored because it is a high privilege to be associated in any way with the names of men who "have fought a good fight, kept the faith, and have finished their course" with honor. One is humbled in the thought that these former comrades are now sainted, having gone on beyond and above us, actually to taste of joys of which as yet we may only dream. Freed from the limitations of the flesh they have come into a more perfect understanding of the meaning of eternal redemption in Christ, for now they no longer see through a glass darkly, but face to face.

One cannot muse upon the names of these sainted comrades without the feeling that our fellow itinerants are slipping away very rapidly. The Western North Carolina Conference was organized in 1890. In the Journal of the forty-eighth session held a year ago, the "Roll of Deceased Preachers" carried the names of one hundred and ninety-seven members of the Conference who have died since its organization. And now seven other names are added, so that in the Journal of this year the number on that roll will be two hundred and four. Now and then I con over the names in this roll—more frequently now than formerly—and always with grateful joy touched with sadness. I knew in the flesh one hundred and seventy-six of these men. Many of their names evoke unforgettable memories, and with the memories a sense of indebtedness so great that I wonder if it can ever be repaid, even in that land where there is no calendar, where "time shall be no more."

What shall we think and say of these sainted preachers? In the light of what standards of judgments shall we evaluate them and their ministry? They have appeared before the Judge of all the earth, a Judge more just and compassionate than any we know here, and yet we too must judge them—and with appreciative hearts—if their ministry is to be further fulfilled in us, their brethren.

We see them now in the light of a new perspective, and because of it we are able to appreciate them more fully, and to evaluate their ministry of faith more justly. And looking at them now we realize that we cannot properly evaluate them by describing their places and activities as pastors, or by recalling their gifts as pulpiteers, and least of all by listing the honors and emoluments which were theirs along the way of life. These we like to remember, and yet they now seem only incidental, fading into comparative insignificance as we look at the moral qualities dominant in their characters, and assess the spiritual values to the creation of which their lives were dedicated. Looking at them in the perspective of the skies we are able realistically to see of how little relative value are all the worldly tokens of honor which we are often tempted to consider of first importance. We cannot think that our Master judges them or us by the worldly standards that exalt the value of place and position. When we recall times in our own lives when we exulted in those honors toward which selfish ambitions greedily reach, we are ashamed and repentant. If we asked these brethren what earthly compensations they most enjoyed, they might well reply: "The honors in coveted positions we now see were of little moment. It is important only that in Christ we learn to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with God. Now above all else we are thankful that we tried to be faithful, to love our brethren, and to help them build the kingdom of God on earth."

These comrades of the itinerant road not only help us to a clearer understanding of eternal values. They also mightily validate our hope of eternal life. We dare not base our hope of a future life on mere "intimations of immortality," or put our trust in the "invincible surmise" of the soul. We do not find that faith in philosophical or metaphysical speculations, however logical and penetrating they may be. Our hope is grounded on the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. With St. Paul we say, "For God who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ." We cannot doubt the divine authority of Him who said, "I am the resurrection and the life." Because he lives, we shall live also, and He seems more obviously alive today than ever before, for His impact upon the world increases with every passing generation. And our godly comrades, with their testimony to the power of an endless life, add to our faith and hope, giving new validation to the meaning of the resurrection of Jesus. Such men as these departed comrades, who lived humbly, and served unselfishly, and died victoriously, challenge us anew to the immortal hope.

Christians are pilgrims, and we think of our deceased brethren as having completed their earthly pilgrimage, and as having perhaps already begun another pilgrimage more glorious than any ever dreamed of here. But as pilgrims we do not despise the world through which we journey. We do not share the attitude of those who have said: "We are not here to make a better world; we are passing through this world on our way to eternal glory." For we are passionately interested in creating a better order of human life in our world. We are working, like our deceased comrades, to build a better order than we can ever see, and looking for a human life better than can be known on earth.

For religion at its best hopes for more than can be realized on earth. It is the vision of that which cannot be seen, the persevering pursuit of goals that can never be reached, a sense of radiance too far away to be humanly realized, a certainty of everlasting reality that forever eludes possession. Dr. A. N. Whitehead has a passage in which this aspect of religious faith is strikingly described: "Above and beyond all things the religious life is not a search after comfort. Religion is the vision of something that stands beyond, and behind, and within the passing flux of immediate things; something that is real and yet waiting to be realized; something which is a remote possibility and yet the greatest of present facts; something that gives meaning to all that passes and yet eludes comprehension; something whose possession is the highest good and yet is beyond all reach; something which is the ultimate goal and yet the hopeless quest."

How true is all this of the Christian pilgrim! We look for a better world than can be builded here, and we also look for a city whose Maker and Builder is God—"a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." In the meantime we travel the long road in the faith that gives us "the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." John Masefield has expressed it in unforgettable lines:

Not for us are content, and quiet, and peace of mind,
For we go seeking a city that we shall never find.

Only the road and the dawn, the sun, and the wind and the rain;
And watch-fires under the stars, and sleep, and the road again.

We travel the dusty road till the light of the day is dim,
And the sunset shows us spires, away on the world's rim.

We thrill in the thought that our pilgrim brothers of yesterday have crossed over "the world's rim," and out of the long road have come into everlasting peace in the city of our God. We salute them today, even as we hope and pray they may greet us when at last the light of the day grows dim, and we reach the end of the dusty road. We salute them in the immortal words of an ancient saint who wrote in apostolic spirit:

"Ye have come unto Mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly and Church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to the spirits of just men made perfect." (Hebrews 12:22, 23).

The Benediction was pronounced by Bishop Purcell.

Ordination Service: At 7:30 p. m. Bishop Purcell called the Conference to order for the ordination service.

REPORT OF THE RETIRING BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Your Board of Christian Education gave its fullest co-operation to the Aldersgate Commemoration. This afforded an unusual opportunity to emphasize the importance of the Church School as an evangelistic agency. The members of the staff worked faithfully in helping realize the spiritual objectives of the commemoration.

There is convincing evidence that the cause of Christian Education has made progress in many phases of its work in this Conference in the quadrennium now ending. A total of 13,247 training credits were issued in the four years. The number of persons in the Conference now accredited for teaching in training schools is 118, an increase of 73 in the quadrennium. The number of churches holding Vacation Church Schools has shown a steady growth from 60 in 1935 to 232 in 1938, and the number of pupils enrolled in these Vacation Schools grew from 4,911 in 1935 to 13,651 in 1938. Contributions to the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise have also shown a steady expansion. The attendance at young people's assemblies and camps has been larger with each succeeding year.

The educational institutions of the Conference have shown a gratifying and wholesome enlargement during the four years. There has been a constant augmentation in the number of teachers, the number of students, the property value, and the endowment funds. Each of the institutions has endeavored to strengthen the effectiveness and improve the quality of its work, with marked success.

I. LOCAL CHURCH

Deserving special notice are the young people's assemblies of our Conference held at Lake Junaluska during the past summer, and the intermediate camps at Camp Dellwood. Five hundred young people attended the assemblies, and 101 intermediates the camps.

Dr. J. Q. Schisler reports that up to now an increase of some fifty thousand in the membership of the Church Schools throughout our church has been reported, and that report of a much larger increase is anticipated when all the Conferences have met. Your Board has joined readily in the plans to increase our Church School enrollment and expects to have a substantial increase reported for this Conference year.

We note with gratitude a steady increase in the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise offerings indicative of a growing interest in our schools in the cause of missions. The offering this year is the largest for the quadrennium and for a number of years past.

Your Board knows it speaks for the membership of the entire Conference when it expresses its appreciation of the conscientious, untiring and effective labors of Rev. J. G. Wilkinson, who, after four years, now closes his term as Extension Secretary of the Board. His services in this important work will be long remembered. Our most cordial good wishes go with him as again he takes up his duties as pastor.

II. SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

A. Your Board recommends:

1. That the action of this Conference in regard to Davenport College taken at its last annual meeting in Asheville, North Carolina, be rescinded, except as hereinafter provided.

2. That the Trustees of Davenport College relinquish the trust vested in them by the will of the late J. B. Cornelius, bearing date of January 18, 1900, recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, in will book —, page —.

3. That a corporation, to be known as the J. B. Cornelius Foundation, Inc., be incorporated under the laws of the State of North Carolina, with full powers to hold and administer trust funds; and that the Court having jurisdiction of the Cornelius Trust be requested to appoint said corporation as Trustee of said trust fund to hold and administer the same in accordance with the terms and conditions of said will; that said corporation be requested, so far as is compatible with its duties under the trust to educate the young women and girls referred to in said will, in our Church Schools. That F. C. Sherrill, Chairman; A. G. Foard, F. B. Bunch, Dr. J. B. Craven, and Rev. Loy D. Thompson compose the corporation; that their successors be nominated by the members of the corporation, and confirmed by the Western North Carolina Conference; and that said corporation make an annual report to the Western North Carolina Conference.

4. That Davenport College be merged with Greensboro College under such name as may be agreeable to the Trustees of Greensboro and Davenport College, and the Trustees of Greensboro College and Davenport College be directed to take the necessary legal steps to effect the merger of said colleges as above set out.

5. That nothing herein contained shall affect the validity of any sale, transfer, conveyance, or other disposition of the property, or assets of Davenport College, made by the Board of Trustees of said college, or the Board of Trust pursuant to the authorization of the last Annual Conference; but all such sales, transfers, conveyances, or other disposition of such property, be expressly ratified and confirmed.

B. Your Board had before it the following resolution from the Trustees of Brevard College. We recommend its adoption.

"RESOLVED, That Brevard College, Inc., be and is hereby authorized to convey to Lyday Memorial Hospital Association, Inc., its successors and assigns, in fee simple, as a gift or for such considerations as the Board of Trustees of Brevard College, Inc., in their discretion, shall fix and determine, the part of its property in the Town of Brevard, Transylvania County, North Carolina, which is described particularly as follows:

C. (1) Brevard College:

Brevard College continues its record of sound educational service. Its contributions to the program of training young people for service in the local church is to be commended. If given adequate support from the friends of Christian education, the services of the institution should be greatly increased.

(2) Duke University:

Duke University had the largest number of students in its history during the last scholastic year, and has substantially increased its endowment fund. The Centennial celebration, which is expected to come to its culmination next April, is successfully accomplishing results of expansion in the direction of an enlarged library building, increased dormitory space, and scholarship funds.

(3) Greensboro College:

Reports show that Greensboro College enters its second century with the largest number of students and on the firmest educational foundation in its history. We heartily commend the encouraging effort now being put forth in connection with the Centennial celebration to increase the endowment and enlarge the facilities of the institution. A much needed addition to the plant will be the Aurelia Bowman Gray Student Hospital, given by Mr. James A. Gray in honor of his mother.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

Your Board rejoices at the continued progress of those who are responsible for the preparation and distribution of Christian literature. The press wields a mighty influence in the shaping and molding of human life and when the press is Christian, the opportunities for good are practically unlimited. But even the best and most inspiring books and periodicals accomplish little unless our people can be persuaded to read them. It is our conviction, therefore, that a heavy responsibility rests upon the shoulders of our ministers, who have the opportunity not only of recommending suitable reading matter, but also of helping to create a desire for literature that is constructive and inspiring.

Our Church School literature is being improved constantly and those who are responsible for it deserve the co-operation of every member of our church. Surely there can be no excuse for anyone's looking elsewhere than to our own Publishing House when literature of this nature is needed.

Once again we should like to emphasize the value of two periodicals which are being widely read and which have done much to deepen the spiritual life of our people. We refer to The Upper Room and The World Outlook. It is our firm conviction that this devotional booklet and this church-wide magazine, if distributed adequately and read conscientiously, will be the means of creating a new loyalty and a deeper devotion on the part of our ministers and laymen alike.

The report of our Publishing House shows that one hundred thousand dollars has been appropriated to the superannuates. The amount received by our Conference is $4,640.56.

The Christian Advocate

The importance of the Christian Advocate can hardly be over-emphasized. This paper gives expression to the life and thought of the church as a whole and is our channel of denominational information. A larger circulation of this paper will mean an enriched and an enlivened church.

In the North Carolina Christian Advocate, our Conference has a paper of which it is justly proud. It is the only church paper east of the Mississippi that is self-supporting. This fact alone ought to merit more than mere passing interest. But its claim to distinction is not confined to this fact alone. It has so often been referred to as the best paper in Southern Methodism that the statement has become somewhat trite and yet we can think of no other expression that will more aptly describe it.

We urge our ministers to make a special effort to secure new subscriptions, not merely for the sake of having large numbers, but in order that our people might keep themselves informed on those matters which are spiritual and therefore eternal.

In communities where it is difficult to secure new subscribers, we believe that if the pastor or some interested layman will order a number of copies and have boys sell them at five cents a copy, many new people will begin reading this paper and much good will be accomplished.

We recommend that J. W. Moore, whose term on the Board of Publication has expired, be elected to succeed himself.

(Signed) R. C. GOFORTH, Chairman,
A. C. TIPPETT, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 1 OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

The Board of Missions recommends the appointment of the following brethren as members of The Commission on Evangelism: E. K. McLarty, H. P. Powell, C. E. Morgan, L. B. Abernethy, W. B. McEwen, E. W. Fox, and J. H. Grigg.

(Signed) CHAS. C. WEAVER, Chairman,
J. D. RANKIN, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 2 OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

Your Board of Missions rejoices that this year of Aldersgate Commemoration has not only inspired our hopes but has also resulted in a gratifying increase in the number of members received on profession of faith—28% gain over the former year.

We wish to emphasize the opportune place of the District Missionary Institutes for spreading throughout the various churches and charges a common vision and expectation of a continuing, aggressive evangelism throughout the coming year. In seeking the furtherance of this purpose, we recommend that this Conference publish not fewer than 50,000 copies of Bishop Purcell's address for distribution through the Institutes and otherwise.

The new Committee on Evangelism has been organized for work with E. K. McLarty as Chairman and Director of Evangelism, and H. P. Powell as Secretary.

We regard The Upper Room as one of the best aids to evangelism. It is not only a guide to family worship but furnishes excellent topics for young people's meetings and prayer meetings. We rejoice in its wide circulation and urge that it be given still wider use.

The Aldersgate Commemoration has produced a new body of Methodist literature, both historical and spiritual. Our people have a new understanding of the origin of Methodism and the conditions existing in Wesley's day. This valuable literature must not be discarded when the great anniversary is passed. We must continue to think evangelism, talk evangelism and sing evangelism that the fires may continue to burn on our altars.

The future for Europe, and for the world, is indeed dark at the present time, but the blacker the cloud is, the brighter is the rainbow. Ours is the same gospel that the pioneers of Methodism preached and that saved England. Statesmen, business men, in fact all classes are coming to realize the need of having the whole fabric of human life shot through with the spirit of Jesus, and human wills brought into subjection to the Divine will. The Committee on Evangelism is committed to this task.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

This Board desires to render all the aid it possibly can to the charges seeking its help. That its efficiency and service may be increased it solicits the co-operation of all who bring to it their appeals. The Board may be saved much embarrassment and loss of time if those seeking its assistance will observe the following suggestions:

1. That the requests for application blanks be sent directly to the Secretary of the Conference Board, naming the project so that the proper blanks may be supplied.

2. That those completing the blanks always copy in, in the space above the signature of the Register of Deeds, and from the deeds of their property, the Trust Clause required by the Discipline.

3. That all applications be filed with the Secretary at least ten days before the annual meeting of the Board, thereby giving time for amendments where necessary.

4. That all applications be brought before the annual meeting of the Board and not held for the meeting of the Executive Committee, since the Committee deals only with emergency needs and reserves only a small fund for that purpose.

Again the Board would stress the recommendation that all church property be covered with ample insurance.

Every application coming before this Board has been most carefully considered. We regret that our limitation of funds prevents our helping all the worthy projects. We report the following donations:

REPORT OF BOARD OF FINANCE

The appointment of Rev. C. S. Kirkpatrick is requested as Conference Director of the Superannuate Endowment Fund. We recommend that one Sunday of each year be designated as "Superannuate Day," on which attention shall be given to the interest of superannuated preachers for the purpose of promoting the payment of the adjusted quotas, in those churches which have not yet met their obligations. We further recommend that each presiding elder provide a place on his District Conference program for the cause of superannuate support and especially emphasize the importance of all churches in his district to pay the balance on their adjusted quotas during the year.

Rev. E. O. Cole will continue as agent to secure homes for superannuated preachers.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT FUND

1. The Trustees acknowledge with gratitude and deep appreciation the legacy of $1,000.00 under the will of the late Mr. W. R. Odell, the beloved layman and generous friend and contributor to the Superannuate Fund.

2. The Trustees have nominated J. B. Ivey and M. D. Stockton for re-election as Trustees for the term expiring in 1941, and James A. Bell for the term expiring in 1942, and/or until their successors are elected and qualified.

3. The Trustees are pleased to report that the funds of the Endowment have weathered the storm of depression and repression without serious damage, and are in fairly satisfactory shape. The real estate taken over in foreclosure is yielding about six per cent income, but we have been forced to incur some costs in repairs and defaulted taxes in getting this property in good marketable condition. One lot has been sold with some net profit to the fund. The income check for the current year shows some increase over the last year, and the prospect is hopeful that the temporary losses will be recouped in the final disposition of our forced real estate holdings.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT NO. 1 OF THE BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

To the President and members of the Western North Carolina Conference:

Dear Brethren:

Your Board of Lay Activities submits its report as follows:

We are glad to report definite progress in our lay work. This is particularly true in the area of efficient organization, understanding of the problems involved, and a more definite commitment to the task. Special mention should be made of advancement in stewardship education, promotion of payment on benevolences and training of official boards. We make the following recommendations:

I. CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship is the very heart of the whole program of lay activities. It is all that and more. It is the heart of our religious experience, and joy and growth. We can never get away from the elemental fact that this is God's world, not ours. He created it; He controls it. Everything we have—physical, mental, spiritual—comes as a gift from Him. He is the giver of every good and perfect gift.

The second elemental fact from which we cannot escape is that man does not own anything save the treasures he has stored in his own heart and the riches of his own personality. Some men have some things temporarily in their possession, but the eternal titles are with God. God has intrusted man as a steward some of his goods for which he must give an account. But greater than that, He has made man capable of being His co-laborer in the building of a better world—by the use not only of material possessions, but of time and talents and his intellect and his whole personality. This is Christian stewardship in its mighty sweep and in its mighty call to the human soul.

What can be done to develop this great doctrine of Christian living in the lives of our people? We recommend:

1. That Boards of Stewards request pastors to preach more often on Christian stewardship as an essential philosophy of life.
2. That courses in stewardship be taught in the adult and young people's classes in the church school.
3. That courses on stewardship be given in Pastors' Schools, Standard Training Schools, and Standard Training Classes.
4. That careful attention be given to an effective distribution of pamphlets, leaflets, and books on Christian stewardship.
5. That a stewardship revival be conducted in local churches where competent men can be secured for such a service.
6. That one of the quarterly meetings of the District League of Stewards be devoted to a stewardship program.

II. A SOUND FINANCIAL SYSTEM

A sound financial system is absolutely necessary for the success of the church in all of its activities. We recommend:

1. Regular weekly offerings on the part of every member of the church as an act of worship. We urge the use of envelopes for this purpose.
2. That every contribution be brought to a stewardship basis, that of spiritual sharing.
3. A thorough annual every-member canvass to secure a contribution from every member.
4. A careful follow-up during the year of all pledges.
5. A monthly balancing of the budget.

III. ADEQUATE SUPPORT OF THE MINISTRY

Any discussion having as its subject the more efficient operation of the church, would not go far without serious consideration of a more adequate support of the ministry. Herein lies the strength or weakness of the entire program of the church. We cry for a better ministry, but we demand that a young man spend thousands of dollars for college and theological training, then we send him to a charge where he cannot provide the necessities of life, to say nothing of paying his debts. Such conditions should be remedied.

We always think of food, clothing, shelter, medical care, and insurance as needful for the support of the ministry, but we overlook the need of transportation for pastoral calls, books for enrichment of life, Pastors' Schools for effective training, and other needs as vital as these.

We recommend that every Board of Stewards in the Conference give most careful consideration to these needs, fix the salary accordingly, adopt a sound financial system and make it effective for the Conference year. We recommend also that all ministers be paid on a monthly basis.

IV. THE BENEVOLENCES

The benevolences constitute the foundation of our churches progress. Only through the benevolent offerings can the basic needs of the church be met.

We recommend:

1. That every effort possible be continued to inform church members of the church's needs, and their obligation and relation thereto through literature, institutes, sermons, the church school, and programs for the District League of Stewards.
2. That the askings for General and Conference work be thoroughly explained to the members of the church so that they may accept their full share in the obligation to assist in making the world Christian.

3. That we continue the goal of at least one-half of the Acceptances on Benevolences be paid by the time of the District Conference.

4. That we give to the Commission on Benevolences every possible co-operation in its program of education and cultivation.

V. EVANGELISM

1. That we pledge to the Commission on Evangelism the fullest possible co-operation to make effective their labors in the field of evangelism.

2. Affiliation with the church should be the outgrowth of a personal experience of God. The mission of the church is not to secure joiners, but converts, to Christianity. Through personal work every new member should be guided to such an experience.

VI. LAY SPEAKING

We recommend a continuous program of the use of lay speakers to present the program of the church to congregations, group meetings, and conferences; to hold religious services where the pastor cannot be present, and in needy areas.

VII. TRAINING STEWARDS

1. We recommend continuous emphasis upon the importance of the office of steward. Let every pastor prayerfully and carefully select those who constitute the Board of Stewards from the standpoint of the following qualifications: Christian character, native ability, loyalty to the church and its program, and willingness to study the task.

2. Let every pastor organize his Board of Stewards into a study class, using as a text "A Steward in the Methodist Church."

3. The continuous use of institutes for stewards in the several districts of the Conference.

VIII. DISTRICT LEAGUE OF STEWARDS

We recommend that every District Lay Leader, in consultation with his presiding elder, and after a careful study of the subject, organize a District League of Stewards along the lines recommended by the General Board of Lay Activities; that the presiding elder and District Lay Leader give careful attention to preparing and directing the quarterly programs of the League.

IX. THE CHURCH PRESS

We recommend a larger circulation of the Nashville Christian Advocate and the North Carolina Christian Advocate. No steward can function effectively in our Conference without reading the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

X. LAYMEN'S DAY

We recommend the continued observance of Laymen's Day the second Sunday in June, June 11, 1939, the theme for discussion, "Adequate Support of the Ministry." We call upon all District Lay Leaders and Charge Lay Leaders to plan for the observance of the day in all our churches.

XI. RURAL WORK

We pledge the fullest co-operation of our Board to the Rural Work Commission.

We nominate A. J. Kirby Conference Lay Leader and request his election by the Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) A. J. KIRBY, Chairman,

PAUL F. EVANS, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 2 OF THE BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

TEMPERANCE

We quote as follows from Hidden Fangs, a pamphlet recently made available through our General Board of Lay Activities:

"Before prohibition, saloons were confined largely to the slum districts. Now they have invaded the residential districts also. They have moved from the alley to the boulevard. True, the bar rail has vanished, but the soda fountain fixtures make a good substitute. The saloon has changed its clothes, but not its character. It is still the fountain of death and the gate of destruction."

We were promised by the advocates of repeal that the saloon should never return, that the bootlegger would soon be but a memory, and that drinking and drunkenness would decline, if John Barleycorn should be stripped of his stripes and be allowed to dress in the honest garb of respectable citizenship. It is all too evident now that the advocates of legalized liquor never intended to keep a single promise of sobriety, or protection, or decency, but wanted only the chance to vend their wares, and to satisfy the thirst of those who were already trained in the drink habit, and to allure to their trade a vast army of young men and women, boys and girls, who should pour into their coffers the millions that they craved.

The gospel of Jesus Christ is a gospel of salvage and salvation. The liquor traffic is an agency of destruction and damnation. These two forces march in opposite directions; they are as far apart as the two poles. As a church, we cannot keep company with Christ and give comfort to the agents of evil. Upon this rock we must take our stand and let the world know that we will not compromise.

Respectfully submitted,

PAUL F. EVANS, Secretary.

CHILDREN'S HOME REPORT

The first home for orphan children in America was built near Savannah, Georgia, by George Whitfield, the flaming evangelist. John Wesley had called Whitfield's attention to the fact that there was much poverty among the early Georgians and that the number of orphan children was out of proportion to the population. Whitfield, with a heart overflowing with sympathy for children in want, determined to satisfy their need. He went to Philadelphia and enlisted the sympathy of many generous friends, among them being Benjamin Franklin, towards building an orphanage. Franklin, with an eye open to the interests of Philadelphia, insisted that the orphanage be established there, advancing the argument that all material for the building and the workmen would have to be taken from Philadelphia. He thought it would be cheaper and better to bring the children from Georgia and train them in Philadelphia than to meet the heavier expense of transporting men and material from Philadelphia. This plan did not meet with the approval of Whitfield and then Franklin refused to contribute anything because his own ideas were not adopted.

When Sunday came Whitfield preached to a great congregation, Franklin being in the number. At the close of his sermon he appealed for generous contributions for the orphanage and Franklin in his autobiography says he de-terminated when the collection began to put a button in the hat but as Whitfield continued to plead he resolved to give a penny, then a dime and later a dollar. But by the time the hat reached him he was so overcome by the mighty preacher's eloquence that he gave his pocketbook with all that it contained. The orphanage, known as the Bethesda Orphan House, was built and has continuously served orphan children to this present day, having observed its 198th birthday during the past spring.

It was not till after the Civil War that the Masons of North Carolina, at the suggestion and agitation of J. H. Mills, a Baptist layman, established the Oxford Orphan Asylum, the first orphanage in North Carolina. This institution has continued in operation to the present day, now being known as Oxford Orphanage. A few years later Mr. Mills resigned from the superintendency of the Oxford Orphanage and led North Carolina Baptists in establishing the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage, now called Mills Home, at Thomasville. Then the Episcopalians built at Charlotte, the Presbyterians at Barium Springs, the Eastern Carolina Methodists at Raleigh and the Odd Fellows at Goldsboro.

Finally our Western North Carolina Conference felt that something should be done for the orphan and indigent children of our church and in 1904 elected an Orphanage Commission to confer with representatives from the North Carolina Conference as to the practicability of securing half interest in the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh. Our Eastern brethren thought that some legal complications as to titles might arise if a union were effected and, therefore, all efforts looking to joint ownership were abandoned. Our Annual Conference at Salisbury in 1907 took definite action towards the establishment of an orphanage to be known as "The Children's Home." Trustees were elected, a charter was approved and authority was given to secure a location for the institution.

The Children's Home was located in Winston-Salem because of the liberal inducements presented. Among other considerations Winston-Salem friends offered 165 acres of land, then valued at $100 per acre. Since there were no buildings on the land it was thought wise to buy the adjoining Davis Military School property, consisting of 25 acres of land on which five wooden buildings were located, formerly used by students in that school. These dilapidated buildings were repaired, enlarged and painted so that it was reported in 1910 that they looked "cozy and inviting." The city of Winston-Salem offered water free of charge provided the Home would meet the expense of extending the water main.

An eleven-year-old girl was the first child to be enrolled, she having been admitted on September 1, 1909. By the end of the first year 76 boys and girls were enrolled.

Our Children's Home has continued to provide for a constantly increasing number of orphan and indigent children throughout the past 29 years. Within the past nine years our population has increased from 240 to 415, the present enrollment registering 220 boys and 195 girls. The present value of the property, including buildings, grounds and equipment, endowment and current assets, amounts to $1,534,096.

The general, physical, mental and spiritual condition of our family continues to improve. Our staff of workers is very co-operative and acceptable. The service and direction extended to our children is not exceeded by that of any other institution within our scope of investigation.

One of the most satisfactory features of our Home is that our youngsters are becoming more effective in directing themselves. We do not have student government but we do have some mighty good student direction. A wilful youngster with bad tendencies finds his or her associates helping in the process of breaking away from evil doings. To be sure, we have many problems connected with the living habits of so many boys and girls, but these problems are becoming more constructive and less punitive.

The output of our Home is in constant demand. We have no difficulty in securing good positions for those of our family who are prepared to assume the responsibilities connected with them. Eighteen of our young men and women are now registered in eleven colleges and universities. Our alumni are a source of satisfaction and joy to us. Their contribution to society and to the ongoing of righteousness not only gives satisfaction to them but also serves to bring joy to others.

While other child-caring institutions have had to reduce their population, due to financial difficulties, we have so far been enabled to increase our population. We are now confronted with a more serious financial challenge. A decided decrease in the income from our endowment will have to be met by a similar increase of income from our friends or cause us to reduce the number of boys and girls being served by the Children's Home. If all the ten per cent apportionment is paid and a twenty-five per cent increase is registered from fifth Sunday offerings we will be enabled to continue to provide for about 400 boys and girls as a resident population and for a limited number of mothers' aid and boarding home children. At this date we are living on a balanced budget and are not in debt.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) T. F. MARR, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON SPIRITUAL LIFE

As an agency of a church whose complete endeavor is to cultivate the spiritual life of its members, and to "spread scriptural holiness throughout the land," your Commission has attempted to define its function.

Every agency of our church partakes of this function in its ministry, teaching and fellowship. Since this is so, one especial purpose of the Commission may be to indicate ways in which the stress of modern living has interfered with this primary responsibility of the entire church. Among contemporary distractions and complexities we may be able to bring out certain basic verities that merit continual emphasis. These fundamental truths need also to be rediscovered as they apply to the social habits and civic interests of a speedily changing world.

Some of the conditions which have overshadowed this primary purpose of the church are:

Economic rivalries, national and international; these are reflected in the tensions involved in church support.

Distraction of attention by the whirling panorama of events presented by press, radio, and screen—a distraction which diminishes meditation essential to the function of a Christian interpretation of life.

Loss of a home-centered family life with its parental influence, with its common discussion of events and experiences—important factors in building ideals.

Loss of integrity too commonly shown in the processes of business and government, a condition which makes difficult maintenance of a fine sense of honor in conducting church affairs. Modes of conduct among leaders in the church which are incompatible with the standards set by Christ for his followers.

The church has gained in Christian education through the church school but it has lost lay leadership and that deepening of individual spiritual life which the church in former days accomplished through class meetings and class leadership. We need less lecturing and more group discussion and above all more active lay leadership in Christian living.

Our churches need the values cultivated in these small groups of adults and young people. What were these values? (1) Repeated emphasis of Old Testament teachings of justice, of Christ's doctrine of mercy and loving-kindness. (2) A new sense of the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. (3) A growing realization of a living, ever-present Christ. (4) A renewed realization that sin brings death of the spirit, that sin is insidious, that it is to be escaped only by seeking the redemption offered in Christ Jesus.

These simple truths expressed in the poetic language of Jesus are irrefutable yet so definite that a child can comprehend them. "If ye love me, keep my commandments; I am the Vine, ye are the branches," He said. Do we teach them by precept and example?

Young people and old are hungering for light on the meaning of life, for help in solving their own problems. These needs should be recognized and ministered to not only by the pastor, but by lay members who will dedicate their time and talents to making personal contacts, particularly among young people. Through such contacts, either singly or in small groups, mutual confidence and frankness can be cultivated in a definite endeavor to find and follow a truly Christian way of life.

The method by which this should be done depends upon the initiative of the local church. The church school, the prayer meeting, the Boards of Stewards and lay activities, the missionary society are regularly constituted groups, any and all of which may be beginning points for this renewed emphasis on gospel truth in its application to personal and social living.

REPORT OF THE BIBLE BOARD

The scriptures of the Old and New Testament constitute the inspired message of God to men. We are therefore dealing with the most important Book in the world—the Bible.

We should teach the Bible instead of teaching about the Bible. It is the Bible's message of salvation, an experience of grace that we need to meet the needs of this day of doubts and uncertainties.

We are indeed fortunate to have the American Bible Society to translate, print, and distribute the Word of God for the world, and at a price within the reach of all. This Society is nearing a century and a quarter of uninterrupted service to mankind.

By the co-operation of Bible Societies, Boards of Missions, missionary groups, and individual missionaries, the Bible in whole or in part has been translated into 1,008 languages and dialects.

Distribution: Owing to the war in China and the conditions in Japan the distribution in 1937 was not quite up to former levels, being a total of Bibles and parts of more than seven and one-third million copies distributed throughout the world. The Bible is still the best seller.

Universal Bible Sunday will be observed this year with the theme, "And Now—One Thousand Tongues." Materials will be furnished pastors including stereopticon lectures by the Society.

Your Committee respectfully presents the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The American Bible Society is a missionary agency continually aiding the churches in extending the Kingdom of God both in the United States and in many mission fields throughout the world by translating, publishing and distributing the Holy Bible, be it resolved:

First: That this body records its satisfaction in the continuing missionary work of the American Bible Society in its efforts to increase the circulation of the Bible and to have the Scriptures more widely used;

Second: That our pastors be encouraged to observe Universal Bible Sunday on Sunday, December 11, calling the attention of their congregations to the fact that the Scriptures have been translated into more than one thousand tongues, urging upon their people a more faithful use of the Bible and a more continuous study of God's Holy Word.

Third: That we recommend an increase in the offering of our church to the American Bible Society.

Fourth: That the presiding elders at the first quarterly conferences in electing committees on Christian Literature, include the distribution of Bibles and parts, putting proper emphasis on the Bible and its distribution.

A. BURGESS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON METHODIST CO-OPERATION

To the Constituent Bodies represented by the Commission on Methodist Co-operation, Greeting:

The Commission met in annual session in the office of the Editor of the Christian Advocate, Greensboro, on Thursday, September 29, with representatives of the three Methodist bodies in North Carolina present. After full deliberation, the Commission directed that the following report should be sent to the four Annual Conferences involved:

With the assured coming of Methodist Union within the next year, the purpose and work of the Commission on Methodist Co-operation draws to a close. That the work of the Commission has been fruitful in a closer fellowship and co-operation between the groups represented none will deny. Because of the work of the Commission the task of uniting the three Methodisms into one in this state will be made much easier. Looking toward that union we wish to review our work of the year, and to make some suggestions for the year ahead.

Approximating the date of John Wesley's heartwarming experience, May 24, three central celebrations were held under the direction of the Commission; namely, at Asheville, Charlotte and Greensboro. Speakers representing the three branches of Methodism were on the program at each place. While the attendance was not large, it was representative, and a fine feeling of fellowship prevailed. Following these meetings a number of group meetings were held in various parts of the state, wherever two or more of the denominational units were in contact. These, too, were fruitful in a better understanding of our common Methodism. Under the direction of Bishop Paul B. Kern, a number of Aldersgate celebrations were held in centers not reached by the meetings held under the direction of the Commission. Wherever possible, speakers from the other two Methodisms had part on the programs, a gesture which we greatly appreciate.

Now, as we look forward to the new year, which will probably be the last in the separate existence of these three groups, there are certain suggestions which we would like to present to the Conferences for their consideration:

1. We suggest the holding of one or more, perhaps several, mass meetings as soon as possible following the holding of the Uniting Conference; in which the work of that Conference might be reviewed, and all possible emphasis put upon the fact that we are actually one, awaiting only the working out of details to put that oneness into effect. If the Conferences approve this suggestion, the Commission will set up and direct the machinery necessary to carry it out.

2. The Commission would like your approval also of the suggestion that two fact-finding Committees, geographically located and composed of two representatives from each of the three Methodisms, be set up to make a survey of all the territory where two or more of the groups have contact, the survey to ascertain the number of churches involved, their possible realignment, and such other facts as may be needed to relate the several churches or charges to the new program. This information to be made available to those who shall be responsible for co-ordinating the work of the now three Methodisms. If the suggestion is approved, the Commission has directed the Chairman and Secretary to name the personnel of the Committees.

3. Since no Plan of Union, however perfect, can really succeed unless there is also a spiritual unity, we think all possible effort ought to be made by this Commission during the year to bring the groups together in District Conferences, in worship and revival services, in young people's gatherings and in pastors' assemblies. We need desperately to get acquainted. When we know each other we shall love each other; and love will cast out any possible fear or misunderstanding.

We are hoping literature may be made available following the Uniting Conference that will emphasize our common task, and the fact and spirit of oneness. If this can be put into the hands of all our people before the three groups are merged, it will do much to further the success of union.

The Commission stands ready to help in any possible way the effort to bring our groups together; and is at the service of any and all agencies which may be charged with that task.

C. W. BATES, Secretary.

THE METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT AT CHAPEL HILL AND COLLEGE PLACE CHURCH

With 700 Methodist students at Chapel Hill and 650 at W. C., U. N. C., Greensboro, the programs at the two places run sharply parallel.

Church attendance at both places averages better than 200 each Sunday. Membership in the church school is larger at College Place than at Chapel Hill, with 355 enrolled at the former and 75 at the latter. College Place has been compelled to give up its largest class room to students, and that is inadequate.

Worship conducted by students is stressed at both places, with surprisingly gratifying participation by students. College Place has its Wesley Players, having connection with the National Society of that name. Four plays a year, repeated in outlying churches on invitation, are undertaken by the Players. A social of some kind each month, a Wednesday afternoon "Friendly," special musical programs and "teas and dinners" are popular at College Place.

Chapel Hill features a Forum each week, at which Religion, economics, social questions, personal problems, religious and moral aspects of political trends, alcohol, and other live questions are discussed under the guidance of professors, pastors, student leaders and invited speakers.

Both programs stress visiting among students, Chapel Hill reporting 1,000 visits to students and College Place special care for shut-ins and needy children in the community.

Posters and monthly bulletins are issued by both organizations to an increasingly extended constituency.

In both cases a special student worker is required. It is entirely obvious that the expense of the work is considerable, and must be met by liberal appropriations by the two Annual Conferences.

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON COLLEGE PLACE METHODIST CHURCH TO THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE AND THE NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

In consideration of the large Methodist enrollment of students in the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, with all that such enrollment imposes in responsibility and privilege upon College Place Methodist Church, the Joint Committee on College Place Church requests the two North Carolina Annual Conferences to consider and approve the following recommendations:

(1) That the two Annual Conferences undertake to raise the sum of fifty thousand dollars, first, to pay off the indebtedness of twenty-three thousand dollars which is now on College Place Church, and, thereafter, to make additional improvements to the present facilities, which are now greatly congested, with the provision that no debt is to be incurred on College Place Church during the proposed enlargement of the facilities.

(2) That the pastor of College Place Church and his assistant be given the opportunity to solicit funds for this purpose throughout both Annual Conferences, and that all our pastors be urged to render every possible aid in the securing of this fund.

(3) That the Boards of Missions in each Annual Conference make appropriations to the salary of an assistant pastor at College Place Church, for the period of one year, seven hundred dollars by the Western North Carolina Annual Conference and five hundred dollars by the North Carolina Annual Conference.

(4) That both Annual Conferences join College Place Church in urging from the General Board of Church Extension a donation of ten thousand dollars to be used in cancelling the present indebtedness and in the enlargement of the plant.

(5) That each annual Conference appoint a committee of three persons to work with a local committee of three persons from College Place Church in carrying out the above recommendations.

REPORT OF BOARD OF MANAGERS OF NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL

The 1938 Pastors' School, held at Duke University last June, was arranged to be held in one week rather than two. This shortened session made possible a large attendance and stimulated the universal approval of the administration of Duke University and all in attendance. The Rural Church Institute was held in connection with the Pastors' School. One of the popular courses was a non-credit unit taught by Dr. Edwin Mims. It is expected that the 1939 School will be planned according to the one-week arrangement.

In the credit courses the following units of credit were earned:

Western North Carolina Conference	40
Ministerial Students	51
Other Conferences and denominations	14

North Carolina Conference: M. T. Plyler, R. W. Bradshaw, and E. C. Few.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MINUTES

The annual meeting of the Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Conference was held in First Methodist Church, Charlotte, at 7:30 p. m., Wednesday, October 19, 1938. Rev. W. L. Sherrill, member of the Executive Committee, presided.

Rev. W. M. Curtis led the opening worship, including reading of Matthew 7, singing of Hymn 2, "Come Thou Almighty King," and prayer. A special anthem, "Come, O Lord from on High," was sung by the choir of the Myers Park Methodist Church.

The minutes of the previous year's session at Asheville were read and approved. The Society instructed the chair to appoint a Committee on nominations of officers for the coming year. The Committee appointed consisted of J. P. Hipps, J. O. Ervin, and T. A. Groce. After consultation this Committee reported nominations as follows: for President, Rev. W. A. Jenkins; for Vice-President, Rev. R. L. Ownbey; for Secretary-Treasurer, Rev. W. G. McFarland; for membership on the Executive Committee, Rev. W. L. Sherrill to succeed himself. The report was adopted by the Society, and the above named were declared elected.

A most interesting address on the "History of Methodism in Anson County" was presented by Dr. Norman A. Huffman.

An offering amounting to $10.60 was taken and paid the Advocate Publishing Company, of Greensboro, on account for printing.

The Society adjourned with the benediction by Brother Curtis.

MINUTES OF THE CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood met in thirtieth annual session in the First Methodist Church, Charlotte, N. C., October 20, 1938, at 4:00 p. m., with the President, H. G. Allen, in the chair. The meeting was led in prayer by W. L. Sherrill. On motion, the reading of the minutes of the last annual session was dispensed with. The minutes of the meetings of the Executive Committee in Salisbury on December 7, 1937, and in Lexington on September 27, 1938, were read, and on motion they were approved and their contents adopted. Two items from the second of the Executive Committee meetings were given special attention. The first was a motion "that the Lay Organization of the Western North Carolina Conference be asked to take over the work of the lay division of the Conference Brotherhood as one of its projects."

The second item given special attention and adopted was the following resolution:

"WHEREAS, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the Methodist Protestant Church are moving toward a union which will in all probability be consummated within the next year, and bring together the members of these three churches in Western North Carolina; and

"WHEREAS, the Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood has for forty-five years performed an indispensable service in rendering aid when it is most needed to the widows and orphans of the clerical members who have died, and has demonstrated its right to a continued and strengthened existence in the united Methodist Church in Western North Carolina;

"THEREFORE, be it RESOLVED:

"First, that the President of the Brotherhood be authorized and empowered to appoint a Commission to be composed as follows: the President of the Brotherhood who shall serve as Chairman of the Commission, three other preachers and one layman from the Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood, and one or more representatives each from the Methodist Episcopal and the Methodist Protestant Conferences in Western North Carolina.

"Second, that the purpose of this Commission shall be to work out plans whereby the Brotherhood shall be strengthened, which plans shall cover the following points:

- "1. The incorporation of clerical members of the Methodist Episcopal and Methodist Protestant Conferences into membership in this Brotherhood.
- "2. The securing of more preachers as members from our own Conference, especially the younger men.

- "3. The enlisting of large numbers of laymen of the United Methodist Conference as honorary members.
- "4. The working out of a plan for making a provision for the dues of the superannuate clerical members."

"Third, that this Commission arrange to meet as soon as practicable after the Uniting Conference shall have completed its work, and that this Commission present its report at the regular session of the first united Methodist Annual Conference in Western North Carolina."

The Secretary and Treasurer made the following report: six members of the Brotherhood died during the past year: Brothers B. F. Hargett, J. M. Folger, R. D. Sherrill, J. J. Edwards, E. P. Stabler, and J. W. Williams. On motion, the report was approved, and the Secretary and Treasurer instructed to include in the minutes published in the Conference Journal the financial situation at the close of Conference. (October 26, 1938: Each of the beneficiaries has been paid $1,200.00, and a balance of more than $700.00 remains in the active fund.)

The meeting was thrown open for suggestions to the Commission authorized in the above resolution, and various members made suggestions.

The President appointed the following Nominating Committee: C. S. Kirkpatrick, Reid Wall, T. V. Crouse, E. K. McLarty, and H. P. Powell. The Committee retired, considered the nominations, and made the following report: For President, H. G. Allen; for Vice-President, R. C. Goforth; for Secretary-Treasurer, C. C. Herbert, Jr.; for Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, F. C. Smathers; for members of Executive Committee, C. M. Pickens, and the President of the Conference Board of Lay Activities. On motion, the report was adopted.

T. J. Huggins moved that the amendment to the Constitution proposed by J. W. Moore and brought over for consideration from the meeting a year ago be dropped. The motion carried.

The President declared the meeting adjourned.

(Signed) H. G. ALLEN, President,
C. C. HERBERT, JR., Secretary-Treasurer.

Memoirs

Editor: These memoirs are printed as written.

JOSEPH JACKSON EDWARDS

Rev. Joseph Jackson Edwards, a faithful minister and a loyal friend, died almost instantly when he slipped on ice and fell at his home, the Murphy Circuit parsonage, on December 9, 1937. He was seventy years of age, having been born on September 11, 1867, in Scott County, Virginia. He spent the greater part of his early life, however, prior to his ministry, in Haywood County, North Carolina. He received his formal education at Clyde Academy, but he continued to be an earnest student throughout life.

His first marriage was to Miss Rachel D. Hipps on January 14, 1894, with Rev. R. C. Chambers as the officiating clergyman. To this union were born seven children, five of whom with their mother preceded him to the grave. The two surviving children are Mrs. Daisy Edwards Vance of Plumptree, and Tevis Edgar Edwards of Mars Hill. His second marriage was to Miss S. Aline Umberger on March 22, 1911. Rev. E. L. Bain was the officiating minister. To this union was born one daughter, now Mrs. E. Brooke Edwards Hayes of Franklin, North Carolina.

Brother Edwards was licensed to preach by the session of the Franklin District Conference which was held at Bryson City on July 29, 1898. He served as supply pastor from 1898 to 1901, when he was admitted into the Western North Carolina Conference at the session held in Gastonia. During his thirty-six years as an active, earnest, and useful member of the Conference, he served the following charges: Webster, Glenville, Whittier, Hickory Circuit, Troutman, Cool Springs, Taylorsville, Marshville, Thrift-Moores, Polkton, Chadwick, Prospect, Stokesdale, Olin, Franklin Circuit, and Murphy Circuit, his last charge, which he had served only a little more than a month.

After a funeral service conducted in Troutman M. E. Church by Rev. W. A. Rollins, presiding elder of the Waynesville District, assisted by Rev. John W. Hoyle, Jr., of Statesville, and Rev. John W. Moore of Marion, the body was laid to rest in the family plot of the church cemetery to await the Resurrection morn.

Brother Edwards was a fluent speaker who could be easily understood. Someone once said of him, "He had the gift of a voice that the 'had to hear' could hear." He was a good preacher and a hard worker, strong in his convictions and successful in revival meetings. He manifested great interest in the people whom he served and always labored to show them that Faith and Works go together. I was Brother Edward's pastor when he was licensed to preach, and I kept in touch with him as long as he lived. As I always considered him to be one of my closest friends, we often discussed our many problems together. Our last conversation was in Asheville at the Annual Conference when we had a very pleasant time reviewing the past and looking to the future. I shall miss this good friend, but, if I am faithful, I shall expect to meet him with Jesus in the "Sweet Bye and Bye." May God bless the wife and children left behind and comfort them in their lonely hours.

T. B. JOHNSON.

JOSEPH M. FOLGER

The Reverend Joseph M. Folger, the son of J. G. and May Blackwood Folger, was a native of Surry County and a member of a prominent family. He was born near Rockford, N. C., September 25, 1881, and was, at his death, November 20, 1937, just a little more than 56 years of age.

On June 12, 1913, he was married to Miss Emma Welch, of Mt. Airy. She was always a strong support and helper in his work, and still lives to bless all who come under her touch. Besides his devoted wife, he is survived by two promising children, Joseph C. and Della Welch Folger; and by one sister, Miss Beulah Folger, of Rural Hall, and three brothers, Grady Folger, of Winston-Salem, M. N. Folger, of Lumberton, and the Reverend J. S. Folger, a member of this Conference.

After attending the schools of his county, he received his law degree at the University of Chattanooga. For a short time thereafter he practiced law, and gave promise of becoming successful in this field. But he gave up his law practice when convinced that he was called of God to the ministry. He was licensed to preach and admitted into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1910. He received ordination to the office of deacon in 1912 by Bishop Collins Denny, and was ordained elder by Bishop R. G. Waterhouse in 1914. During his eighteen years of active ministry he served acceptably the following charges: East Bend, 1910-12; Rural Hall, 1912-14; Mt. Airy Circuit, 1914-15; Draper, 1915-17; Saluda, 1917-19; Mills River, 1919-21; Asbury Memorial, 1921-25; and Prospect, 1925-28. Owing to ill health, he was granted the superannuate relation in 1928. He had made his home in Mt. Airy since his superannuation.

Mere words are too empty to express the worth of his life and service to the church. He was a faithful minister of Jesus Christ. He was a sound and sane preacher of the Gospel, and a kind and sympathetic pastor. His consecrated life and service will long be remembered in the charges where he served as pastor. After coming to Mt. Airy to live, he and his family contributed much to the religious life of the town. He was a faithful attendant at Sunday school and church, and always did what he could to advance the cause of His Master. He was at prayer meeting just three days before God called him higher. He had looked forward all the week to teaching a class of boys and attending church on Sunday morning, but instead he had the privilege of worshipping with the redeemed hosts in the Church Triumphant.

Brother Folger possessed a strong and beautiful Christian character. He had a keen mind and was a good student. Even after his retirement from the active ministry, he continued to read and study. He was naturally quiet and unassuming. He made no show of his religion. Yet how real was his experience with God! He lived on a very high plane. His entire life was caught up in spiritual concern and interests. One could not long be in his presence without realizing that he was a man of God. The estimate of all who knew him was that he was a genuinely good man. That is the highest tribute that can be paid to any man and one richly deserved by our brother.

Brother Folger's going was sudden and unexpected. Just a short time after finishing the evening meal with his wife and daughter he was stricken with a heart attack, from which he never rallied. The funeral service, participated in by Dr. W. A. Lambeth, Reverends H. G. Hardin, Jr., and Seth Hinshaw, and the writer, was conducted in Central Methodist Church, Mt. Airy, at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, November 22, after which his body was laid to rest in Oakdale Cemetery.

We are deeply grateful that such a good life has passed this way. He has left us a noble heritage—the example and influence of a pure and spotless life. While there is an element of sadness in his going, there is also joy and victory.

Another comrade has finished his earthly ministry with honor, and has gone to an appointment where his ministry will not be handicapped and cut short because of a broken body. The triumphant words of St. Paul may be fittingly spoken of Brother Folger: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness."

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past,
The battle's fought, the race is run,
And thou art crowned at last."

B. F. HARGETT

Life has been epitomized as consisting of what one is, what one does, what one does without and one's preparation for departure. What a man is, what he does, what he does without and his manner of leaving this world is a fair appraisal of his character.

As to the first factor, all who knew the Rev. B. F. Hargett recognized his genuineness. The motto of our State: "to be rather than to seem to be" applies to his sincere and unpretentious manhood in an unusual way. It was this open and easily recognized sincerity which made him wear well with people and gave him respect and leadership with his churches and communities. He stayed six years on one pastorate, five on another and was in and near Charlotte for fifteen years. If there was one thing about him on which all his brother ministers and friends would agree without dissent it was this: he was a true man. The record of what he did grows and of what he was. The following outline of his life puts him in the lead among his peers.

Rev. B. F. Hargett was born in West Union County, North Carolina, March 4, 1860. He grew up on a farm and naturally, coming up after the Civil War, he had it very hard for several years. He attended the common schools in the community where he grew up and finished high school at Baine Academy, Mint Hill, in Mecklenburg County. He taught in the public schools in Mecklenburg County two years. He was elected principal of Rose Hill Academy, now Pageland, S. C., and taught there in 1902 and 1903. Afterward he taught in the town of Chesterfield six years, was Mayor of the town two years, and served on the County Board of Education four years.

He joined the church in 1884, and was licensed to preach in 1885. He had seven years as a licentiate preacher, taught school and supplied country churches. (He conducted and assisted in 282 funerals and married 140 couples.) He was ordained to preach in the Baptist Church at White Plains, S. C., August 16, 1892.

While in school work he supplied several country churches and was Moderator of the Chesterfield Baptist Association. In 1899, while living at Chesterfield Court House, he had typhoid fever, which left him in a very low state of health. He came back to North Carolina in 1900 and stayed on the farm one year. In 1901 he joined the Western North Carolina Conference at Gastonia. His charges in the Conference have been: Boone and Blowing Rock, three years; Wilkesboro, four years; Randolph Circuit, two years; Race Street, Statesville, two years; Canton, one year; Pineville Circuit, four years; Seversville and Rural Trinity, six years; Chadwick, five years, and superannuated at Conference in Charlotte in 1928, making in all 27 years in active service in the church.

He was married to Miss Addie Hollar, of Catawba County, April 7, 1881. They had ten (10) children born to them. The living today are two sons, W. B.

Hargett, of Washington, and F. B. Hargett, of Charlotte; three daughters, Anne, Ruth, and Mrs. W. N. Hovis; and ten grandchildren.

He preached to 240 congregations in North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia. He held over 100 revivals in his own and other churches, and preached at Rock Springs and Balls Creek Camp Meetings. In all of his work as minister, he had the glorious privilege of preaching to approximately 50,000 people. He baptized as many as forty-eight at one time. He was in labors abundant, "full of good works," fervent in spirit, serving the Lord.

Concerning his self-denial and frugal living, a part of these deprivations are common to the lot of all preachers, but with him his means went into the actual necessities of life and the education of his children. Plain living and high thinking was the rule in this parsonage home. The standard of life was fixed by ideals more than by means, more from culture than from commodities. Homely fare has never hurt the high standards of any parsonage house and the minister can lead best when his life is noted for self-denial.

The climax of earthly life may be called the coronation of the soul which comes at death. This investment of immortality is the result of a double preparation; the first is the continued discipline of spirit that any good man practices when he lives for noble purposes, and struggles against the current of unworthy things. By this exercise of the soul he grows strong and stalwart. The super mundane matters become a part of him as he builds enduring spiritual qualities into the pattern of his character. Immortality may be an attainment as well as a conferment. Thus the man who "breaks his birth's invidious bar, breasts the blows of circumstance, grasps the skirts of happy chance, and grapples with his evil star" wins merit and righteousness.

But after all could "our tears forever flow, our zeal no languor know, these for sin could not atone," so with faith that out-reaches works, he laid hold on eternal life, the gift of God in Jesus Christ. He had the righteousness of faith and the reward of simple trust in his personal Saviour, and being justified by faith he had peace with God while he lives in golden memory of his family and his many friends.

His funeral was conducted from the First Methodist Church in Charlotte, by the Reverends T. H. Swofford, C. C. Weaver, and the undersigned. His weary body was laid to rest in the Rural Trinity Church yard near Charlotte.

ROBERT D. SHERRILL

On December 5, 1937, Rev. R. D. Sherrill, an honored member of the Western North Carolina Conference since 1890, passed away peacefully in a Charlotte hospital. He had been ill quite a long time and his demise was not unexpected. He was born in Iredell County, October 12, 1861. Early in life he dedicated himself to the Master and lived consistently through all the years. He was educated at Statesville Academy and Randolph-Macon. He joined the Conference in 1890 at Concord and served valiantly and fruitfully till his retirement in 1921.

In 1890 he was united in marriage to Miss Eliza Howard, of Statesville. Surviving are his widow and two sons, Paul M. Sherrill, of Charlotte, and Robert H. Sherrill, of the faculty of the University of North Carolina.

Following is a list of the appointments he so capably and acceptably served: Bakersville, 1890-91; North Asheville, 1891-95; Waynesville, 1895-97; Marion, 1897-1901; Morganton, 1901-05; Albemarle, 1905-07; Spencer, 1907-11; Greensboro, Centenary, 1911-15; Charlotte, Hawthorne Lane, 1915-17; Winston-Salem, West End, 1917-18; Lenoir, 1918-20; Reidsville, 1920-21.

There are many in these charges doubtless who remember his ministry very gratefully and evaluate his services most highly. He was recognized by all who knew him as a truly conscientious pastor. He traveled the way of duty. He served his church with undeviating fidelity and unflagging zeal. Wherever he served as pastor he made his people feel that a Christ-like life was in their midst. There was no note of uncertainty in the gospel he preached. His messages were characterized by simplicity and earnestness. He knew the Master in the experience of forgiving love and endeavored to preach with assurance inspired by his own satisfying and soul-stirring communion with God.

To Brother Sherrill God was a great reality and his ministry was expressive always of that deeply devotional spirit born out of the sense of reality. He called sinners to repentance with a kindly fervor and convincing sympathy that came from intimate fellowship and comradeship with a friendly spirit at the heart of life.

He was gentle and thoughtful in the sick room, affable and helpful in the circle of children and dignified and reverent in the pulpit. His life was characterized by deep consecration, fervent love for his fellows, fondness for the Word of God and loyalty to every interest of the kingdom.

He was pure in his private life, upright in his dealings with his fellows, and always ready to help those in need. There was nothing sensational about this good minister of Jesus Christ. He sought to make himself serviceable rather than showy and endeavored to exert an influence for good rather than win praise for himself. All in all he was a royal soul. Long will the hallowed influence of this Christian minister abide in the hearts of those who knew him and loved him.

EDWARD PATRICK STABLER

Edward Patrick Stabler was born in Orangeburg County, South Carolina, April 12, 1874. His early life and young manhood were spent on the farm. He attended Wofford Fitting School and Wofford College, from which he graduated in 1909. To have sat at the feet of Dr. James H. Carlisle and to have enjoyed through those college years the instructions and the inspiration flowing from that giant character was ever a strength and a joy in the mind and memory of Brother Stabler.

He joined the Western North Carolina Conference at the annual meeting in 1909, meeting that year in Hickory, N. C. From his coming into Conference to his superannuation in 1933 he served the following charges: Bethel Circuit, Marshall, Jefferson, Gastonia, West End-Franklin Avenue, Lafayette Street—Shelby, Bessemer City, Ranlo, Welcome, Dudley Shoals.

In the early part of the year 1933, Brother Stabler's health failed him. With great reluctance and poignant regret he gave up his work and came to locate in Bessemer City with his former parishioners and friends whom he loved. In the early hours of the morning of February 19, 1938, Brother Stabler passed quietly to his eternal reward. He is survived by his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Beatrice Byars, of Spartanburg, South Carolina, and three fine children, James Stabler, of Washington, D. C., Misses Annie and Georgia Stabler, of Bessemer City.

As a preacher Brother Stabler was logical, scriptural, earnest and forceful. He did his pulpit work with a zeal and a zest becoming a faithful servant of a great Lord and Master, whom he loved and gladly served. He was great in his pastoral services; on going into new homes he made it a major part of his business to find a place in the life of each member of the family, getting the names of the children in mind and being able to return and to call them by their names and making them to feel at home in his presence and to be blessed by his friendship.

Regardless of where you met E. P. Stabler he was always the same. No one ever had reason to feel that there was any superficiality or lack of sincerity in the association with him. He was just as plain and courteous with the cultured as with the uncultured, with the rich as with the poor.

His experience as a farmer, in his young manhood, made him very familiar with the soil and a favorite of the farmer. His sympathy and sincerity, and his interest in the finer things of life made him a favorite with all who met him. He ever stood for the thing that he thought to be right without fear or favor. The only question that need to be asked when wanting to know where E. P. Stabler stood was, "Which side was right?"

As a preacher he was admired for his straightforward and constructive leading of his hearers to the higher and better things in life. He preached a simple gospel and even when he waxed eloquent he did not forget the needs of life and the importance of applying the gospel to the daily living of people. His hearers could always feel confident that his preaching would be well supplied with Scriptural quotations. So faithful was he to his pulpit duties that he often preached when he was unable, and should have been in bed.

As a pastor E. P. Stabler excelled. He was always busy. Going from house to house was to him a joy. He showed no favoritism but visited the rich and the poor alike. Seldom did he leave a home without having prayer and on his going the people of the house felt the presence of the Christ a little nearer than before. He seldom forgot a face or name. On his second visit to a home he could call all of the children by their first names. This made him one of the best loved pastors that ever served the various charges to which he was assigned.

His prayers lifted the load from many a troubled heart. In confident faith and submission he took the sick, the sorrowing, and the burdened to the Heavenly Father. A sentence that he often used and that inspired many a heart to a closer walk with God was, "O Lord, save us day by day." To him salvation that was sufficient for the end was salvation today.

His friendliness to all, and favoritism to none, made him a healer of breaches and a peace maker, in many instances.

He was so faithful to the cause to which he had given his life that the effect of the work showed on him rather early and unexpectedly. So after a few years of superannuation, of hoping and of waiting he answered the Father's call to "come home."

CHARLES E. STEDMAN

Charles E. Stedman, oldest child of Frank A. and Sally McCullers Stedman, was born March 13, 1864, near Raleigh, and died March 8, 1938, at his home at Peachtree, N. C.

At the age of 18, Brother Stedman gave his heart to the Lord, and God laid His hand upon him, and led him into the Gospel ministry a few years later.

He married Miss Lizzie Hiscock, of Elmira, N. Y., in February, 1895. To this union one child was born, who, however, died in infancy.

Brother Stedman joined the Western North Carolina Conference in December, 1903, and served the following charges: Aquine Mission, and student at Sylva Collegiate Institute, 1903; Jonathan, 1904-07; Elk Park, 1908; North Haywood, 1909; Fines Creek, 1910-11; Spencer and North Main, 1912; Uwharrie, 1913-15; Bethel, 1916-17; Hayesville, 1918-21; Murphy Circuit, 1922-23; Spring Creek, 1924; Hiawassee, 1925-26; Superannuated, 1927.

While pastor at Hayesville, Brother Stedman lost his wife in July, 1919. He remained a widower until October 29, 1924, at which time he was married to Miss Mary Annie Abernathy, of Peachtree.

This Godly man was a very plain, practical preacher of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. He lived much in prayer, and preached fearlessly. He loved young people, and spent much time in training them, wherever he served as pastor. He accepted his appointments without complaint, and served willingly the charges to which he was sent. His home life was beautiful. He and his wife were sweethearts right up to the time of his death. A good soldier of the cross has received his promotion.

He is survived by his wife, of Peachtree, N. C.; one sister, Mrs. F. E. Hearne, of Eatonlou, Ga.; three nieces, Mrs. Clara Puckett, Tifton, Ga., Mrs. Lina Palmer, Gadsden, Ala., and Mrs. Mary Moody of Bryson City, N. C.; three nephews, Francis Hearne, of Augusta, Ga., Reggie Enloe, and Scroop Enloe, Jr., of Dillsboro, N. C.

JOHN WESLEY WILLIAMS

On April 5, 1938, in the midst of a happy and successful pastorate at Glenwood Church, Greensboro, Rev. John Wesley Williams passed suddenly to his reward. Brother Williams was born on a farm in Randolph County, April 4, 1875. He attended school at Rutherford College and, later, Trinity College; after which he went to Greensboro and worked in a store. In 1905 he was married to Miss May Wagstaff, of Greensboro, who died 18 months later. On December 4, 1907, he was married to Miss Annie Johnson, of Farmington, the intelligent and sympathetic co-laborer with him of his more than thirty years in the ministry. He is survived by the widow and two children: Wesley, teacher in the Engineering Department at Duke University, and Miss Margaret, who teaches in one of the high schools in Greensboro.

Brother Williams supplied the church at Canton in 1907 and joined Conference in Salisbury that fall. He was ordained deacon at this Conference by Bishop Morrison. He was ordained elder at Statesville in 1911 by Bishop Hoss. Thirty and a half years this man of God went about his Master's business in the work of circuit, station, and district. Here is the record by charges: Mills River, three years; Bryson City, three years; Marshville, two years; Race Street, four years; Main Street, High Point, one year; North Wilkesboro District, four years; Burkhead, three years; Calvary, Charlotte, three years; Forest City, four years; Kings Mountain, one year; Ramseur, one year; Glenwood, one and a half years.

When the rich die, the question is often asked: "What did he leave?" Surely this question is just as appropriate regarding those rich in faith and good works. When Brother Williams so suddenly closed his eyes on earthly things last April, he left a church shocked and grieved at the loss of a pastor greatly beloved. He and Glenwood had fallen in love with each other and the hearts and homes were filled with deep sorrow. It had been most gratifying from the beginning of his pastorate to hear enthusiastic expressions of appreciation of his unusual work at Glenwood. This goes for officials, members, young people—all.

He left an affectionate family circle. Surely this is a rich possession! His devotion to wife and children was fine and noble, and their co-operation with him in the work of the church was a constant joy. A wealth of family affection is a rich legacy for any one to leave behind. Better the love and appreciation of a refined life companion and two appreciative and intelligent children than any amount of earthly possessions.

He left behind an army of grateful friends whom he had served during the thirty years of his ministry. Scores of these called, wrote, wired, or sent flowers as an expression of love and appreciation. Some of these were the converts of the meetings he had held down through the years. Here is the itinerant's compensation. No man is poor who enjoys the heart-felt appreciation of a grateful people.

He was an unusually faithful pastor. He had a way of finding the sick, the sorrowing, the unfortunate. And his sympathetic heart went out to all those in need. In the hospital and the home he brought hope and cheer to many who needed a friend. Life-long friendships were begun in situations like this.

He also left confidence and love of his brethren of the ministry. Thirty-one times they had said, "There is nothing against him." There is no finer fellowship on earth than that of the ministry of the church. He is greatly missed in the Monday morning preachers' meeting. The very large attendance of his brethren at the funeral on a bleak day was a loving tribute to his memory.

Finally, Brother Williams left the record of thirty and a half years of faithful service as an itinerant Methodist preacher. The recording angel alone has the complete record. Preaching, raising money, improving church property, conducting revivals—what variety! His was a full life of service and he was busy to the end.

WILLIAM ROBERT ODELL

For the first time in fifty-six years, William Robert Odell is not physically present at the annual meeting of the Western North Carolina Conference. Friday morning, March 25, 1938, at 11:30 o'clock, only a few weeks after passing his eighty-third birthday, he slipped quietly out of this life into the richer fellowship with God. Editorially, the Charlotte Observer said of him, he "has left a fortune to posterity—a fortune in good works, a fortune in uplifting influence, a fortune in good citizenship and a fortune in personal character and moral righteousness."

William Robert Odell, son of Captain John Milton Odell and Rebecca Kirkman, was born in Randolph County, March 3, 1855, and had the early advantage of a Christian home. He grew into young manhood with the ideals of that home and the rich heritage of a great family name always before him. At an early age he entered Trinity College and graduated in the class of 1875. He was only twenty years of age and had the distinction of being the youngest member of his class.

A short time after graduation from college, Mr. Odell moved to Concord. There with his father he pioneered in the textile industry and remained a progressive and active figure in this field until his death.

Mr. Odell was twice married, his first wife being Miss Elizabeth Sergeant, of Greensboro. He is survived by two sons of this union, F. C. and A. G. His second marriage was to the former Mrs. Clara Sergeant Branson, a sister of his first wife, who also survives him.

Many significant honors came to this great man. In the year 1888, although he was a young man of only 33 years, he was, upon recommendation of President Crowell, made a Trustee of Trinity College, now Duke University. He remained on this important Board until his death. He lacked only three months of completing a half century of outstanding service to this institution. His educational interests, however, were not confined to his official relationship to Duke University. For 25 years he was Chairman of the County Board of Education of Cabarrus County.

A second significant event of the year 1888 in the life of Mr. Odell was his activity in the organizing of Forest Hill Methodist Church of Concord. He was a charter member and a member of the Board of Stewards from the beginning of the church, serving as Chairman of the Board during the last 26 years of his life. For 35 years he rendered valuable service as Superintendent of the Sunday school.

Mr. Odell's interest in Christianity and the program of the Christian Church, however, reached far beyond the bounds of his own local church. For forty years he represented the Western North Carolina Conference in the General Conference, being elected a delegate on ten separate occasions. He also served on the Book Committee of the church at large for 24 years. During the days immediately preceding his death, Mr. Odell spoke most often of the forthcoming meetings of the Book Committee in Dallas, Texas, and of the General Conference in Birmingham, Alabama. Death prevented his attending either of these meetings.

The funeral service was conducted Sunday afternoon, March 27, from the Forest Hill Methodist Church of Concord by Dr. C. N. Clark, presiding elder of the Salisbury District, Rev. Walter J. Miller, and Rev. Paul Hardin, Jr., former pastors, and the writer. Burial followed in the family mausoleum in Oakwood Cemetery, Concord.

Truly, W. R. Odell was one of God's great, but humble, lay servants.

LEE F. TUTTLE.

Patronize Your Own Printing Plant

We do not feel that we are asking too much in urging our pastors, churches, schools and all connectional interests to order all their printing from the Advocate.

We are equipped to handle anything from a visiting card to a book as economically and expeditiously as any printshop in the state.

Some of our city's most prominent business institutions are among our best customers; but it is to the great North Carolina Methodist family that the Advocate looks expectantly for its principal patronage.
